BOARD REPORTS

Secretary- Britanny shared a thank you note from the Barbati family. They thanked us for the Giant Eagle gift card that we provided through Sharing is Caring. It helped them while Jen was receiving treatments at the Cleveland Clinic this summer.

Treasurer- For the month of January, we started with a balance of $49,254.15. We had around $2500 in revenue from bowling and after school activities which was paid back to the vendors. Our expenditures were for the 4th grade Meadowcroft field trip, SWEP supplies for Mrs. Quinn, and Winter Party reimbursements. We ended with a balance of $48,937.76.

OLD BUSINESS
Sharing is Caring- We provided DoorDash and gas gift cards to the family of Brooks Murphy, a Streams Kindergartner, while he battles Neuroblastoma. He had a successful 10 hour surgery on Monday and has more treatments upcoming. Our Kindergarten students are sending him pictures and cards to cheer him on.

Teacher Appreciation- The committee added a third chair, Jess Mitchell. In January, they provided staff with slices of pie that were donated from The Pie Place. For February, they will pass out heart shaped pretzel donuts.

Spirit Night- We received $450 from our ChickfilA Spirit Night. We are still waiting to find out how much we will receive from our OTB Spirit Night. Thank you to all of our Spirit Night participants.

Spelling Bee- The event was organized by PTC chair, Sarah Cranganu. Sarah Tannenbaum volunteered as a record keeper. She was very impressed by the participants. It went 21 rounds. The winner, Alexander Li, will go on to the next round. Sarah encouraged everyone to consider being a judge next year.

Bowling- There were 124 participants. The event went smoothly with one takeaway. There were some lanes with only 2 people, which caused a few people to have to wait. Next year, we will ask that all lanes have 4-5 people.

Arts in USC- Britanny and Vivienne will be mounting the artwork on Saturday. Each submission will include the artist name and title of the piece. Arts in USC will be held in the High School LGI on Wednesday, February 28 from 5:30pm-7:30pm. Refreshments and light snacks will be provided.
