The Small Print

From the thousands of applications submitted the selection processed is random. Each season the number of requests received for assistance exceed the amount donated by the Community. The Goodfellow Fund anticipates assisting 12,000 school children this season. Applications will be accepted and processed until that limit is reached. Historically the limit is reached in early November.

Please enter your application carefully and completely.

Make sure every box on your child's information is completed !

What Happens Next

Should the review and acceptance of your request for assistance be selected you will receive a letter in the mail to your home address. In the letter you will be asked to come in for a personal interview with one of our volunteers. In the letter, you will be given a location, day, date and time for the interview.

In order to receive assistance, you MUST bring the letter and documentation outlined above with you to your personal interview in order to support your eligibility for assistance. This documentation must match that with the information you submitted on your application. Assistance is only for children in your legal custody.
