

A Message from the Town Clerk and Registrars of Voters Offices

Please be aware that a number of residents have received letters in the mail that appear to be coming from the Town Clerk's Office. These letters were not sent from the Town Clerk's Office nor the City of New Britain. They were sent from: Voter Participation Center, 45 Hudson Ave., Albany, NY. The letters say that you are not registered to vote. Residents are then instructed to fill out the paperwork and send it in. Be aware that you may already be registered to vote, so you can use this voter lookup link to find out <https://portaldir.ct.gov/sots/LookUp.aspx> or you can call the Town Clerk's Office at 860-826-3343 or the Registrar of Voter's Office at 860-826-3310 to inquire.
