

PORTRAIT OF A GRADUATE

Our Graduates Possess a deep respect for humanity and the world in which they live. They recognize the unique worth and beauty of all human beings. They respect that the world is populated by a rich variety of people with diverse religious, cultural and economic backgrounds. They are tolerant, empathetic, fair, forgiving and honest.

Our Graduates Are Prepared to thrive in a process-based, collaborative world. They are grounded by an inquiry-driven, interdisciplinary, concept-rich curriculum, preparing them to lead lives as courageous, independent thinkers who communicate effectively.

Our Graduates Understand that service and action are the outward expressions of inward convictions.

Our Graduates Are On Their Way to well-chosen higher education and, most importantly, lives that transcend the ordinary.
