Danville, KY, 04/25/2024 - Boyle County is excited to announce the upcoming opening of the Boyle County Early Learning Center (BCELC)* located at 410 E Main St, in the Jennie Rogers Community Center this July. Operating under the umbrella of Boyle County Schools and in partnership with the city of Danville, the center aims to provide a nurturing and safe environment that fosters cognitive, social, and physical development in young learners in the Danville/Boyle County Community.

Equipped with six classrooms that will serve children ages 6 weeks to 5 years old, the BCELC is dedicated to laying the foundation for academic success. The center's curriculum has been thoughtfully crafted to prepare children for the transition into Kindergarten. "We're excited to provide a holistic approach to early childhood education," said Tonia Darnell, Director of the BCELC. "Our goal is to create a nurturing environment where children can thrive academically, socially and emotionally."

The fully renovated facility boasts a range of amenities designed to enhance the learning experience. From a fully fenced playground to an indoor gross motor room and thoughtfully designed classrooms, every aspect of the center has been meticulously planned to promote exploration and discovery. Safety is a top priority, with features including controlled access, surveillance cameras throughout the premises, and adherence to both state childcare and school regulations.
