

Edina Community Council Member Application Form

The Edina Community Council is the governing body for the Edina Family Services Collaborative and the advising council for the Edina Resource Center. The purpose of our Edina Family Services Collaborative is to work together - schools, city, human service providers, families, businesses, community members – to create a family services delivery system that is: family focused and empowering, comprehensive-providing a continuum of services, community based, focused on prevention and early intervention, culturally relevant, and built on strengths and resources of families.

Functions/Responsibilities of Edina Community Council:

- Promote community-building efforts
- Advise the operations of the Edina Resource Center and assure its financial stability
- Act as decision making body for Edina Family Service Collaborative
- Assess human service strengths and needs in Edina
- Select and prioritize community goals to help strengthen families
- Help steer overall work of Edina Family Services Collaborative

Commitment and Meeting Schedule:

- Meetings are scheduled on Mondays from 3:00 - 4:30 pm at the Edina Community Center in Room 170. The 2024-25 dates will be Sept. 9, Oct. 7, Nov. 4, Jan. 6, Mar. 3, and May 5.
