

CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

Naomi Duval

Earlier this week saw the completion of a very special aspect of our construction project.

The expansion of our gymnasium meant that we had to move the tree that was planted in memory of Naomi Duval, a former student at JKCS.

The construction crew took great care with the tree and it is safe and sound in its new location. A living memorial to a beloved JKCS graduate.

Rob Campen, Site Supervisor, Maple Reinders, poses with Alta Van Niekerk, Derek Maat, and George Petrusma at the entrance to the Clarkson Room.

This room, which formerly housed offices for our Admissions, Communications, Development, and Financial staff, looks very different today!

CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

Our building expansion is engaging the interest and imagination of our students! Mr. Van Caulart poses with two adorable, pint-sized construction workers Michael-Vincent U. and Caleb B.
