Dear Lagway Family,

Many of you have asked how I'm doing so I wanted to update you on my cancer journey. I successfully completed all 16 chemotherapy treatments as of December 26th. The past few weeks have been dedicated to eating healthy and regaining my strength and energy, and I feel great. Even though I responded positively to chemotherapy, I will still have surgery on January 30th. I will be out two weeks, but Mrs. Lea Ann Boswell (retired Willis ISD principal) will be present on campus to assist Mrs. Velasco. After some physical healing, radiation will follow but will not impact the school day.

Thank you all for your thoughts and prayers. I can honestly say God has been present and visible throughout this entire journey. I will continue to be faithful and claim complete healing.

Thank you also for sending your children to school every day. Their gentle hugs, smiles, and curious comments have warmed my heart and inspired me to be strong. Seeing them everyday has made quite an impact on my healing and motivation. I remind them often to LEAD. They know how important it is to LEARN something new everyday. EMPATHIZE with others. ACHIEVE their goals. And DEMONSTRATE integrity. They are a big part of my journey, and I hope one day they will look back and know what perseverance looks like.

Thankful for my community,

Mrs. Wilder
