AP Government Summer Assignment Directions

In order to encourage student awareness of current events, students will need to choose a current event from June and July 2024 for a total of two selections in total. Using a journal article or a televised report from one of the acceptable sites below, students will write a two-to-three paragraph response for each current event.*

Each response should include an objective summary of the event itself along with the student's personal reaction and opinion. Both responses should also include correct citations based on The Chicago Manual of Style.

The paragraph responses will be due on the first day of class, though later transfer students may receive a later due date.
