Ray's Rules

1. Absolutely no food or drink of any kind in the theatre please.
2. Please turn off all cell phones, electronic devices, cameras, and any other noise making apparatus—including small children. This is a small space and we all want to hear.
3. Photography, videotaping, or audio recordings of this production are strictly prohibited due to copyright laws.
4. Please keep everything out of the aisles and pathways.
5. The house management staff requests that any restless child be removed to the hallway so that the performers and other theatre goers are not distracted.
7. The company will be available immediately after the performance to meet and greet the audience for a few moments.

Special Thanks
