relegated to the red.

MARRIED.

CASEY-NICHOLSON-On November 15, by the Rev. W. N. Pile, SADIE NICHOLSON. of Brooklyn, to HARRY HONCE CASEY. of Middletown, N. J.

vember 14, 1905, at the residence of the bride's father, 772 Greene av, by the Rev. Nacy MeGee Waters, ALICE CARLL JEWELL to CORNELIUS SCHENCK

POOTE-ACKLER-On Wednesday, November, 15, at Utica, N. Y., by the Roy, Dr. Lowis Ray Foote, Miss MABEL SHULL of Illon, N. Y., to Dr. LEWIS NATHANIEL FOOTE, of Brookly u-

O'MEARA-O'NEILL-At St. to WILLIAM J. O'MEARA, of Brooklyn.

DIED.

Matheson, Apita Brady, Mary. Mayo, Joshua C. Clark, Mary aesster, Katharine-Moore, Allen Partridge, A. L. M. Farrell Thos. L. Pfeiffer, Annie M. Fredricks, J. H. Goebel, Ludwig A. Quinlan, C. K. Gove, Mary A. Rellly, Susan Janet, William H. Reiners, Catherine M. Rockwell, P. G. Ketcham, Susannah. Sheldon Cella E.

A.M., November 15, 1905, MARY, beloved wife of John B. Brady. Funeral from her late residence, 151 Clif-

CLARK-On Wednesday, November 15, 1905. SIARY CLARK, beloved wife of the late Funeral from her late residence, 112 Grand 6t, on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock; thence to Sts. Peter and Paul's Church, where a solemn high requiem mass will be offered. Interment at Calvary Ceme-

Funeral on Saturday morning, from her late residence, 123 Ralph av, at bo'clock; thence to St. Benedict's Church, where Lawrence Farrell. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, 76 Waverly av, on Friday, November 17, at 2 P.M. Interment in Holy Cross Ceme-

(California papers please copy.) and George H. Fredricks, aged 35 years. Funeral services 1:45 P.M. Sunday, at his late residence. H Strong place, Brooklyn.

GOEBEL-Tuesday, November 14, 1905, LUD-WIG. A. oldest son of L. A. and Apple Relatives and friends are requested to attend the services at his late residence.

291 Schermerhorn st. on Thursday, November 16, at 8 P.M. Funeral pri-GOVE-On November 15, 1905, after a brief Illness, MARY A., widow of Walter S.

Lafayette av. Friday evening, November 17, at 8 o'clock. Interment private.

681 Decatur st; on Thursday, November 16, 8 P.M. Funeral private. (New Orleans papers please copy.)

KELTY-On Tuesday, November 14, ELIZA-BETH R. KELTY, beloved daughter of James T. and Mary E. Kelty. Funeral from her late residence, 589 Washington av. Friday, November 17, at 10:30 A.M.; thence to St. Joseph's R. C. Church. Relatives and friends are invited to

KETCHAM-On November 14, 1905, SU-SANNAH, beloved wife of Valentine Ketcham, aged 68. Relatives and friends are requested to attend the funeral services at her late residence, 537 McDonough st, on Thurs-day evening, November 16, et 8 o'clock. (Long Island and Philadelphia papers please copy.) 15-2

MATHESON-On Tuesday, November 14, ANITA, only child of William and Ella Matheson, aged 16 years and 6 months. Relatives and friends are respectfully in-vited to attend funeral services, at residence of her parents, at 110 Park place. Brooklyn, on Thursday, November 16, at 7:20 P.M. Interment private. MAYO-At Benufort, S. C., Tuesday, No-vember 14, 1905, JOSHUA C. MAYO, in (Boston, Mass., papers please copy.)

Funeral services at his late residence,

PARTRIDGE-On November 15, 1905, AD-DIE LOUISE MEAD, beloved wife of Charles R. Partridge.

Functal services will be held at her late residence, 548 Greene av. Brooklyn, on Friday evening, November 17, 1905, at 8 o'clock. Interment at Nyack, N. Y. PFEIFFER-Suddenly, ANNIE M. PFEIF-FER, beloved daughter of the late Victoria and John A. Farrell. Notice of funeral hereafter QUINLAN-On Wednesday, November 15.

1905, CATHERINE KENNA, wife of the late Michael Quinlan. Funeral from her late residence, 141 Sack ett st, on Saturday, 18th inst. at 9.20 A.M.; thence to St. Stephen's R. C. Church, Hicks and Summit sts, Brook-

REILLY-On November 14, 1965, after a brief illness, SUSAN, widow of William Funeral from her late realdence, 511 Sixth av. on Friday, November 17, at 3 30 P.M.

REINERS-At Palenville, N. Y., on Monday morning, November 13, 1905, CATHER-INE MARIE, whow of Hermann Reiners,

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services on Thursday even-ing, November 16, at 8 o'clock, at her late residence, 668 Willoughby av. Brook-

ROCKWELL-On November 15, 1905, PHY-LETUS O. ROCKWELL, in his 64th year Funeral services at his late residence, 116 Cumberland et, Brooklyn, N. Y., on Thursday evening, November 16, at 8 o'clock. Interment private (Boston and Springfield, Mass., papers please copy. SHELDON-Suddenly, on Wednerday, November 15, at her residence, 191 Clin-ton at, Breeklyn, CELIA F. FARRING. TON, widow of Henry Sheiden. Funeral pervices will be held on Friday afternoon, November 17 at the First Prosbyterian Church, Henry st. at 2-20 Celock it is requested that no

IN MEMORIAM.

McCANNA -Anniversary mass for the late

REAUTIFUL PINELAWN CUMETERY. Over two thousand acres on L. I R. R. The largest in the world. Most accessible and modern. Plots from $10 up. Send for illustrated panulated Round trip tickets, Sec., at 46 West 20th st., N. T.

FLAGMAN DIES AT POST. Edward Fleming, a New York Central Raitroad flagman, stationed at Fifty-ninth shoot litton avenue yesterley when the horse can and Rieventh avenue, Manbattan, was found away, throwing him to the ground. He suf-

MARRIAGES AND DEATHS ASCONTY SWEARS BISHOP FIRED SHOTS AT HIM

DEBEVOISE-JEWELL-On Tuesday, No- Troubles of the Syrian Colony Heard in the Butler Street Court.

WRANGLE OVER INTERPRETERS.

Cathedral, New York City, on November 15, 1905, by the Rev. Mgr. M. J. Lavelle, AGNES P. O'NEILL, daughter of the late weeny Dismissed—Decision Reserved in Ascenty Case.

Hawaweeny, of the Syrian Church, and five days ago in Kerrigan's saloon at Alabama Tighe, this morning, and the examination | each. Yesterday afternoon Lawyer Kathan approceeded until a late hour in the after peared in court and surrendered the acmembers of the Syrian colony of New York, The prisoners went into the pen and the BRADY-After a short illness. Wednesday, and the Russian Consul General, who is a lawyer hurried away. During the afternoon friend of the Bishop, was an interested spec- in the Supreme Court and asked for a writ tator. A number of dark-eyed women whose to fre the pair, claiming that the complaint ton places Friday, November 17, at 2:30 millinery lwas of a uniformly bright shade did not set forth sufficient ground for action. of red were in court--women who might be Justice Dickey refused to grant the writ widows at a moment's notice, so high is the stating that the alleged crime was set forth teeling in the case at the present time.

Bishop's counsel, and his assistant, William Eron, the Supreme Court Lawyer Kathan Howard, ir, were in court, and the opposite went for the Gates avenue court and before faction was represented by Lawyer Charles; the magistrate made a motion to have the LeBarbier and Assistant District Attorney the lawyer that the bonds had been canceled Smith, the latter in his capacity of prose- earlier in the day. The prisoners were bailed FAESSLER-On Thursday, the 16th inst., cuting attorney. For the Bishop, who de- cut last night. I KATHARINE FAESSLER, in her 80th clared that he never had had a revolver in place to-morrow. his hand, was flatly accused of having shot at Ascouty no les than twice on teb eventful night of the assault, a solemn requiem mass will be offered There was a riot on Pacific street, near up for the repose of her soul. Relatives Clinton, on the night in question and the Jail Breaker Gives Exhibition of His above the street of the soul. Relatives Clinton, on the night in question and the last last right. and friends respectfully invited. Inter- Bishop's story is that he was attacked by some of his enemies, and that he never as-FARRELL On November 14. THOMAS L. saulted anyone. He claimed that he was FARRELL, son of Bridget and the later simply on his way from a sick parishioner's house when he was attacked. There seemed to be shooting from all quarters and Ascouty fell with a bullet in his left leg. There at the Star Theater this week, gave an exwere several collatera complaints to be hibition of his skill in opening prison cells, the Bishop had attempted to shoot a police-FREDRICKS-On Wednesday, November 15. man of the Amity street station, and an-JOHN HENRY son of the late Susanna other that the Bishop and thirteen of his or Michaells and Conti, Probationary Offi-

put Ascouty's statements into English. That spring pattern and is regarded as one of the was the signal for an outery from Mr. Os- best of the kind in the city. born, who is the bishop's counsel. Shibley | Cunning, who was accompanied by Mana-is one of the bishop's bitterest enemies. | ger Ellis of the Star Theater, says his cell-Funeral services at her late residence, 147 Is one of the bishop's bitterest enemies. "You'll not interpret for me," shouted Mr. breaking is done on purely scientific princi-Osborne. You are an ex-convict."

JANET-On Tuesday, 'November, 11, Will.'

IAM H. JANET, beloved husband of Ania

E. Janet, in his 47th year, passed away.

Functal services at his late residence.

Thereat Shibley walked in the direction of Mr. Osborne with his eyes blazing; angrily, Mr. Osborne receiled a bit, "You're not coming over here to assault me now, are you?" questioned the lawyer. "You know I am not, Mr. Osborne," sail Shibley. "But you have said something about me that I resent." (Keydouh, who boasted that he had inter-preted in the General Sessions, and who is that he would do the job. Mr. LeBarbier did not object and so Keydouh was permitted to take the oath. But from that time on there was a constant wrangle between the two interpreters, for Shibley had been permitted to stand there to see that Kydouh dld no wrong in his interpretation. Shibley was flery all the way through. Bishop Hawaweeny sat near where he stood and once Shibley appealed to the court for protection didates: from the mild-looking cleric. "Judge," shouted Shibley, his eyes flash-

a thief and a robber, and has 'said that I stole money from the poor," Half a doten of the bishop's adherents

MOORE—At Central Park, Long Island, on November 11, 1905. ALLEN MOORE, for all hands to sit down and be quiet.

Ascouty's story was that he had come to 17,466.25.

Carl V

In the fine the services at his late residence.

Central Park on Thursday, November to see a friend. He was on Pacific street.

18, at 8:15 P.M. Interment services at Greenwood Cemetery, on Friday morning, November 17, at 11:30 A.M. inquire at mela entrance for location of piot.

Manhattan, on the night of the shooting, once, spent $1.181 of which $1,000 went to the campaign committee.

Central Park on Thursday, November to see a friend. He was on Pacific street.

In a 8:15 P.M. Interment services at near Clinton, on his way home when he light of the shooting.

Campaign committee.

Lie shooting campaign committ sure the Bishop had fired. Then the shoot-Ascouty said he had been shot in the leg. In the course of the long cross examin-ation Mr. Osbourne did not shake the witevidence giout the shooting, was very sure that the Bishop had fired

Mr. Osbourne went into a rather tiresome questioning of the witness about the doctors who had attended him for the wound in the "Excuse me, your honor,, for taking up your time with these details," said Mr. Osborne. "I'm only a dead one."

"Go on," said Mnglatrate Tighe, kindly. Later the witness said that he remembered that the newspaper Al Houda had been opposed to the Birliop but that was after he had been shot. He read the newspapers

"Oh," said Mr. Cabo, ne, recently defeated as Tammany's candidate for District At-torney in New York County, the only way to make you read the newspapers is to shoot you. I wish I had been shot before I read some of the tribus the newspapers have been saying about me in the last three

The second with the was Hubert Flannery. of 4 Barrow street Manuattan, who lived at 193 Clinton street at the time of the shooting and who evel very distinctly that he saw the Bishop fire two chots at the

After the hearing of this witness the testimony of the police was taken up on the assault case. The officer who said that the Elshop had drawn a revolver on him was not so very sure of the matter and that case against the Bishop was dismissed. The other case cannot the Bishop for the alleged assembly on Ascouty was not disposed of, for the magistrate postponed decision. His five par hyggers, also concerned in this case, were also held for the pres-

Af or a recess the magistrate took up the reas; 'racs courses made by Shirdey and the slude lefer very law in the afterneon, BISCH HE INVESTIGATING.

Engin er Trying to Find Oul if Dock Company Tried to Get Sullivan Street. KATHERINE Metanna, beloved lough partnerst of Historica is investigating atter of Ellen E, and the late Patrick Me-Cauna, at Holy Cross Church, Flathuch, on Friday, November 17, at 2 A M. Sullivan street No permit for the work had been besteld by the department. Mr. Hischoff's report will be ready probably to morrow.

THROWN FROM WAGON; HURT. Charles Poulson, 43 years old, a driver, of 1412 Sixtleth street, while driving a borse attached to a light Instness wagon was in-Jured at Forty-fourth a reet and Fort Hamdead in his shouty this morning. His death fered continuous of the back. After a phywas due to asthma.

LONELY WITHOUT HIS WIFE.

Fritz Isenberg Cut His Wrists and

Throat on Her Grave, and Died. On the grave of his wife, who died about two years ago. Fraz Isenberg, 87 years old, with no home, cut his wrists and throat with an old pocketkuife in Evergreen Cemhospital late vesterday. Isenberg, it was said had been in the hablt of going to the cemetery each afternoon. Some grave diggers (ound him lying on the grave and called an ambulance from the German Hos-The body was identified by a sonin-law, John Kalser, of 170 Woodbine street

LAWYER'S EFFORTS FAILED.

Courts Declined to Free Men Accused as Bookmakers, on Technical Grounds.

Unusual efforts have been made to free The hearing in the case of Bishop Raphael William Stahl and George Paget, arrested ten in detail in the complaint, and expressed doubt if the lawyer could draw a more sat-James W. Osborne, who appears as the isfactory complaint.

CUNNING OPENS PRISON DOORS.

Skill at the Myrtle Avenue heard in the court this morning; one that at the Myrtle avenue court, this morning. Magistrate Naumer, Chief Clerk Charles A. Flannigan, Assistant Clerks Charles and sympathizers had conspired to kill Ances oer Mrs. L. E. Taylor, Court Officers Ma-Shibley. The care first taken up was that loney. O'Donnell, O'Kane and Murray, and of the bishop and the nve others who took weeral newspaper men accompanied the perpart, it is claimed, in the shooting of former with locks and keys downstairs. There was difficulty from the outset, due and then went inside, after announcing what in a large measure to the excitable charac- he would do. In the meantime his method ter of the Syrias, who grouped about the of work was hidden by a door at the foot teach and would not sit down, even when of the stairs that was closed. He was increered to do so by the Magistrate. Then side of the cell just six minutes, when he the question of an interpreter was taken stepped out and announced his success. The up and Anees Shibley stepped forward to lock which he overcame is of the double

QUEENS CANDIDATES' EXPENSES

Borough President Contestants Cassidy and Bermel Lead With Over $7,000 Each-One Candidate Spent $10.50.

Nearly all of the Queens County candi-Magistrate Tighe told the lawyers that it dates have filed their affidavits as to cam-Shibley was objectionable to Mr. Osborne paign expenditures during the recent eleche would not be asked to interpret. Michael tion, the Borough President candidates, as would be expected, leading the size of their a friend of the bishop, steped up and sald contributions. Borough President Joseph Cassidy leads with a contribution of $5,000 to the Democratic campaign committee and a total expense of $7,665, and Joseph Bermel, the successful Republican and M. O. candidate gave $2,000 to the Republican County Complitee and a liberal sum, nearly $3,000, for printing and newspaper advertising, which seems to have assisted him to victory.

Joseph Cassidy. Democratic candidate for Borough President: Contribution to Demoing and waving his hands in the air with cratic Campaign Committee, $5.900; carriage melodramatic vigor, "I want you to protect hire, $25; printing and advertising, $2,240; me from the bishop. He has just called me refreshments, $400. Total, $7,665. Joseph Bermel, Republican and M. O. candidate for Borough President: Paid Republican County Committee, $2,000; newspaper advertising and lithographs, $2,959.66; notary crowded up to the bench and assured Magis-trate Tighe that the bishop had not said a word. Hawaweeny needed his head in said clerke, etc., $256.23; stationery and postage. word. Hawaweeny noticed his head in sad cierke, etc., $256.23, stationery and postage, dissent to the charge and the magistrate told $629.60, fireworks, $33.50; carriage hire, all hands to sit down and be quiet. $136.15, music, $90; hall, $13.25. Total,

Carl Vogel. Democratic candidate for Cor-

Alfred S. Ambler, Republican, for Coroner

Harris J. Harte, Republican candidate for Assembly, First District, $54; Edward J Smith, Democratic candidate in the came district, $10.50; William A. De Groot, Republican, for Assembly, Second District, $639.89; Edward R. Clark, Democrat, came district, $220; Michael J. Carter, Republican, for Alderman, Seventleth District, $296.25; Martin W. Lochner, Democrat, same district, $125.

SPECIAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

It is

Baking Powder that makes the Delicious Biscult, Griddle Cake

LOST AND FOUND.

and Doughnut

SCHEAN DIAMOND LICE STITLES ON THE ESTAD STORT NOVEMBER * only to Libraries (MAMENT) (MAME A) on the control of the contro LOST SYLDNESDAY INFINING NOV 32 AT w Married Phrater Lieboure Place, Purint to Dracts a Broadwa damied do al Lee Kull (the PALIS, fee statistic Blood res #4 a August November 18 Procedure many A VERTAINS SCOTT IT CANALAR MANES TO THE PARTY OF TH Lost on White and All Inners to the tweet of and 4.50 a tentur Satellia, costs on the last tweet of the tweet of the costs of the first standard of the Atlantic to Sate of the friend of the deligns toward will be self for return of some to Brooklyn Law School Lagle Building.

Horatio N. Bain got second with his Mary Master, a black, aged 7, by Quartermaster, and bred by owner. There was no fourth award and the yellow was given to A. R. Gillis' Josle Sable. Sergeant John W. Smith, of the mounted police, had his good 1 year old black filly, Jonsey Smith, sired by Directum Kelly and etery and died while on the way to the Keen Competition in the Classes for Little Contenders for Horse Show Prizes.

Adds Five Ribbons to Her Already Long List-Hunters Prominent To-night.

The pony stallions occupied the morning hours of the Horse Show at the Garden of his parishioners who were accused of avenue, charged with bookmaking, by Super- to-day. Special Shetland classes followed having shot at Abda Ascoty, of 15 West intendent McClintock of the Society for the them and then came pony brood mares and ber 18 last, was finally brought to a hearing Gates avenue court the men were held for there being fourteen classes up to the rein the Butler street court, before Mgistrate examination, bail being furnished at $2,000 cess, made a morning of many fascinations, especially as the contests in nearly every class were pleasingly close and exciting.

> nary success. Well in the lead in ribbons the week thus far to witness it, but it was and prize money last night, by 11:30 this an appreciative crowd. Miss Wilks finally morning she added largely to her victories. Morgan third. In the first hour and a half of the day five pony Cocksparrow a white. All these rib-cat last night. Their examination will take The news came to the Garden to-day that there had been a death among the exhibits. It proved a horse that had not yet shown, the backney stallion Bally Prince, a 3-yearshown in the 3-year-old backney stallion and died late last night.

The initial class on this morning brought a blue to Jordan, of Boston. It was the pont stallion other than Shetlands, not over 14.1 to be shown with three of their get. B. M. Cunning, who is known as "the jall | dan's Dilham, Prime Minister, a jaunty little breaker." And who is playing an engagement brown, 13.3, was the fortunate pony. The

Imp. Mar, was second. There was a very smart display of 3-yearold pony stallions in the next class, seven having been entered. The interest here lay in whether Berkeley Bantam would again beat Doncaster Model. It was Judge Moore against Mrs. Gerken, and the lawyer won. Doncaster showed none the less prettily. The margin was wide, of course, between second and third. William Carr's little roan, Challenge, was finally judged the best of those remaining, and T. L. Watt's Clark got fourth place. Pony stallions, a little larger-those over Torchlight and fourth with Torchlight's mate, Cocksparrow. Dilham Prime Minister was beaten for the blue. The victor was Irvington Farm's Enfield Nipper, a fine little hestnut, 13.2. The Jordan pony did, however, get his red ribbon in good shape. The registered Shetland stallions, not over forty-six inches, gave a victory to Mrs. E. F. Hawley, of Pittsford Farms, Pittsford, N. Y., her brown Bressay of Pittsford readily cap-

Gerken got third with her miniature bay

Hawley's Ellersley of Pittsford. Watt took first with her forty-inch black, Martha, and T. L. Watt, Jr., second and third with his forty-inch black, Caroline, and his forty-two-inch bay, Primrose. The Rancocas Stock Farm (Mrs. Allien) came in for fourth with the forty-four-inch brown, Jordan's Lady Kitty, a snappy bit of a got two of her morning ribbons in this class. Mrs. Charles Wilmot's very attractive looking roan, Strawberry Blonde, whose unusual tint has been noticed by many people during the week.

Horatio N. Bain for the black Alcina, sired was living with a woman. by Alcantara, and bred by W. B. Dickerman, Bains scored again, Mrs. Bain getting the blue with her Alcina Robbins, the Poughkeepsie woman had her entry hooked up to a trotting wagon instead of being led, and this meant a decided difference in the show form of the little mare. A. R. Gillis' Bo lamo received second ribbon and William Hoegg's Morn Freedom third. Trotting stallions in four classes finished street, Manhattan, on the night of Septem- Prevention of Crime. When arraigned in the a long array of trotters. All these features, the morning's events. The two-year-old bred by himself, in for honors in Class 9

-trotting colts or fillies, 1 year old. He had but one rival in this class, Horatio

N. Bain, with his bay filly, Francos Bain, and Mr. Bain beat the doughty ergeant out.

Frances Bain got the blue after much care-consideration and Jonsey Smith was Again, in the next class (for two-year-old trotting filles), Mr. Bain and Sergeant

Smith met. Bain with his bay, Ceda Rob bins, the sergeant with his black, Barbara

Smith, another of Directum Kelly's get. Once more the Poughkeepsie man beat the New York police officer, though again it was close call. A. R. Gillis took another yellow ribbon here with his Ceda.

The three-year-old fillies followed. Th

W.; Horatio N. Bain's bay, Robbins, and Miss K. L. Wilks' bay, Mograzia. This proved a very neat class and met with much favor from the rail. There were few-Mrs. John Gerken continued her extraordi- er people than on any other morning of received first, Mr. Bain second and Mr Horatlo N. Bain's F. N. B. was the only more ribbons fell to her, no blue, but two entry for the 3-year-old stallions, and be reds, two yellows and a white. Doncaster was promptly awarded a blue. A succeeding Model got a second in the three-year-old class, stallion, to be shown with all of his get, the oldest of the get not to exceed t pony stallions, Berkeley Bantam, Judge years, stallion and get to be considered, also Moore's miniature crack, taking the blue brought out only one entry, another trotter from him. Solitaire won a red, Towthorpe of Mr. Bain's, Sir Robbins, an 8-year-old a yellow, the pony Torchlight a yellow, the bay bred by his owner. The blue was given to Sir Robbins without question. His get, as bens increased Mrs. Gerken's prize winnings Arsena Robbins, Robbin Robbins and Ceda

The last class of the morning was a racing class, judging two trotters in harness (Class 11). The entries were Lawrence Jones' chestnut, Guy Fortune, and Samuel H.- Runold chestnut. Bally Prince was to have won the blue. His record trials, as given, were 2:111/2 and 2:08. Brown Master was awarded the red, with a given record trial of 2:1714

To-night's programme is in great par hunting, the middle and light weight hunters coming on in two large classes. The evening's great event is, however, the Hotel Martinique Prize, at 9 o'clock-21 gig horses being entered for this. Among them are Judge Moore's Forest King, Lady Gay, Acress, Heathfield Squire and Grand Duke, E. D. Jordan's Hildred and Lord Burleigh, Alred G. Vanderbilt's Rustling Silk and The Youngster, Jay F. Carlisle's Eloquence, Lawrence Jones' Gallant Lad, Reginald Vanderbilt's The Dictator, Edward Knieriem's Kiesing and C. W. Watson's Lord Baltimore.

WIFE DENIES AUTHORSHIP.

12.1 instead of under-followed. Here Mrs. Mrs. Brogan Says She Didn't Write Badly Spelled Letters Husband Filed in Divorce Suit.

Mrs. Adelaide J. Brogan, who was granted $25 counsel fee and $3 weekly alimony by Supreme Court Justice Dickey, on Tuesday, vorce against James W. Brogan, of 110 turing the blue. T. L. Watt, ir.'s, Skewbald Waverly avenue, has replied to her hus-Shelfie Toronto fought for the award, but band's answering affidavit, in which he prohad to be satisfied with a red, while the sented two letters alleged to have been adwhite went to Watt, Jr.'s, chestnut Red Fox.
and the yellow to young Alfred De Witt ters were remarkable for their spelling and When it came to the Shetland brood mares grammar, and one written on July 5 last innot over forty-six inches, the Watt family closed a poem entitled, "I Am Trying So got all the ribbons but one. Miss Gertrude Hard to Forget You," which Mrs. Brogan is alleged to have written as just suiting her pathetic condition.

Her answering affidavit, on file in the County Clerk's office, deales that she wrote the letters attached to the defendant's affidavit, and brands as false all his allegations brown mare, 14 hands high, won out nicely as to her character. She adds that her husbrother than class for brood mares other than shellands, at 16:10 o'clock. Mrs. Gerken casions, leaving her at those times with no money, and three times destroying her cloth-She failed for the blue, just missing it by a hair's breadth with Solitaire. She took the red very cleanly, and the Gerken took the red very cleanly, and the Gerken took the red very cleanly, and very prom-Towthorpe Nelly, 3 year old, and very prom- morning at 3 o'clock, and upon her remon-ising, carried off third. Fourth went to strating with him, he beat her so badly that her screams were heard by two policemen. As they entered the house, the defendant sneaked out by another door, seh says. On October 14 last, Mrs. Brogan says, her The brood mare trotters, 4 years old or busband told her that he had a "fake" di-over, certified to be in foal or to have pro-duced a foal in 1305, introduced another ele-She deposes that she then ostensibly left ment to the ring. This initial class was him but followed him to his present address nicely fought out. The blue went to Mrs. at 110 Waverly avenue, where she alleges he Brogan has instituted a counter claim.

SPECIAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

SPECIAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

Special Sale Oriental Rugs

Small Sizes Only.

16 Bales - 834 Pieces Dagbestans, Shirvans, Cabistans.

Late arrivals from the Orient.
102 Antique Daghestans; value $15.00, $10.00 each 234 Antique Shirvans; value $16.50 to $18.00; size 3x5 to 4x6
117 Antique Shirvans; value $20.00; $15.00 each 122 Antique Cabistans; value $25.00: } $17.50 each 87 Fine Antique Daghestans; value $30; } $20.00 each 93 Fine Antique Shirvans; value $35.00; $ $25.00 each 79 Exceptional Fine Antique Daghestans. Shirvans and Cabistans; size 2.6x5 $40 to $75
This is an exceptional opportunity for any one wishing to anticipate their Christmas shopping.

We will positively sell these rugs only to our customers for private use, under no consideration to the trade.

Lord & Taylor.

Broadway and Twentieth St., Fifth Ave., Nineteenth St. NEW YORK.

SPECIAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

SPECIAL ADVERTISEMENTS

SURE WINNER EVERY TIME BECAUSE OF ITS RIPE OLD AGE AND FAMOUS FAULTLESS FLAVOR

FRANK MORA & C. H. ULRICH. Representatives,

0000000000000000

Waterproof Shoe. A shoe that not only affords all ordinary protection, but that keeps the foot warm and dry on cold and stormy days is the Coward Waterproof Shoe. Trim in fit, easy in use and durable in wear, it embodies usefulness never 17	day's Engle.

CLASSIFICAT	TION.	PAOR
Aprildensense	CONTRACTOR NAME OF COLUMN
Ametion Sale
Bostiling
	stires
Burgles race of	Softwattles	18
	can blue
	Notice of the second second
Death Seil
	C. etti Correger to t routh discussions
	ar construction
	W
	·
	ura	A COLUMN TO COMPANY OF THE PARTY OF THE PART Smidespossiff
	•
	ruction tions
	*141 *
	F#	41 B. C. L. D. C. C. L.
		ON THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF
	at Ametica	00001 800
	onted
	ricentents
	114
	For Fale
AND DESCRIPTION OF	EUL PROCESSION STATE	The state of the s

The comment of a critic on being shown our MODOC collar was: "As clever a style as ever cut from linen."

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR HIDS AND ESTIDATES FOR THE CITY OF NEW YORK. NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

waterproof Shoe. Irim in fit, easy in use and durable in wear, it embodies usefulness never equaled in any other make.

SOLD NOWHERE ELSE.

JAMES S. COWARD, 268-274 Greenwich St., N.Y. (SEAR WARR'S STREET.)

Mail Orders Filled. Send tor Catalogus'.

Mail Orders Filled. Send tor Catalogus'.

Mail Orders Filled. Send tor Catalogus'.

BUSINESS PERSONALS.

NOTICE-1 CLAIM MY THATE MAIN THE works: "American Melines Anti-corresive Composition" and "American Melines" Anti-couling Composition of the Catalogus (Catalogus Catalogus Cat GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS.

cetimates in addition to inserting the same in figures. It blers are requested to make their blds or es-Ittillers are requested to make their bids of ex-timates upon the blank ferms prepared and fur-nished by the city, a copy of which, with the isoper envelope in which to inclose the bid to-setter with a copy of the contract, including the specifications, in the form approved by the Cor-puration Connect, can be obtained upon applica-tion therefor at the office of the Department for which the work is to be done. Plans and draw-iters of construction work may also be seen there, ARION'S SKAT TOURNEY. The Arion at last night's meeting decided to hold the annual skat tourner, for members Wanted 15-17 only on December 3,