

Syrian Bishop Cleared In Court.

The charges against Bishop Raphael Hawaweeny of the Syrian Orthodox Church were dismissed by Magistrate Tighe in the Butler Street Court yesterday. The first charge was that he had fired a revolver in a street row several weeks ago. Another charge was that the Bishop, with thirteen of his followers, had conspired to do bodily harm to certain Syrians who oppose him.