Acknowledgements: I want to thank God himself for giving me a lot that I could imagine. I thank my family and friends that God gave me to help me through the challenges I thought I could never face. I thank my basketball team and coach for showing me that I am more than a player and position. I would also love to thank myself by pushing through the challenges when I felt like there was no hope. Life have taught me a lot and I learned a lot, that to succeed you have to fail. Moving on in life after high school can be scary but I put my all my trust in the lord that he will be with me through my good and bad days, which brings me to my favor quote, "God is within her, she will not fail". I will be going off to pursuing my dream of being an actress and my back up plan is real estate. Most of all Hope you guys will see me on the TV one day.
