7	The discipline matrix needs to be revised and updated with teacher input. Several teachers are having a hard time with teaching and discipling students. This is more often than not causing students that want to learn to miss critical instruction. More attention and focus are placed on the handful of students with behavioral concerns and the majority of students are suffering because of it. Why is a class of 20 being sacrificed for 2 or 3 that are causing problems. No one is winning and test scores will not improve this way.	1/26/2024 6:03 AM
