Please honor the dignity of our ceremony. This ceremony is a culmination of over 12 years of study for the students who will walk across the stage this evening. Each graduate deserves to enter the ceremony and receive his or her diploma with the full attention and respect of the audience. Each speaker, musical group and performer also deserves the same respect. As a courtesy to everyone please silence all cell phones.

We understand that you are proud of your graduate and are excited today. However, out of respect for all of the graduates during this very important occasion, please refrain from shouting out, whistling, using noise makers and/or throwing objects during the processional, the actual ceremony and the recessional. Following the recessional, audience members may join the graduates for congratulations outside of the stadium. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation with this request and for joining us.
