DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Anyone who's ever been delighted to discover an old film noir classic on late night TV, or found satisfaction in curling up with a good mystery will find much to laugh at tonight. This show parodies many of the authors, playwrights, movies, heroes and villains from the classic genre of the murder mystery. Please, sit back, relax, and enjoy the efforts of these fine actors and technicians who have worked very hard to bring you Done To Death.

So don't worry about a thing! Murders like these only happen in books and stories. It can't happen here... or can it?
