If you were cast, you must come to the Auditorium today from 3:30 to 4 today, Friday. You will (all) get a script, and we'll talk about scheduling. If you cannot be there, please see Ms. Vernon immediately.

If you were not cast, please understand. Costuming, stage space, even rehearsal time prevent me from casting everyone I'd like to. Please come back to the tech meeting next Friday, here in room 39. There's still plenty of fun and creative work to do on crews.

Thank you to everyone who auditioned. It was, again, brutally hard to make these decisions. Remember, there are still three more shows and a musical to go!
