An Invitation

A personal invitation is always appreciated, so this is my personal invitation to all high school students and college students home for the summer to become OLGC Summer Music Minsters! The school year is crazy busy and there isn't always time in one's schedule, but at 3 pm Saturday afternoons and 9 am Sunday mornings you are welcome to come to the Church for an hour rehearsal prior to the 4pm and 10am Masses. Both singers and instrumentalists are most welcome! Let's sing songs of praise and gratitude together with the assembly and raise the roof this summer....

For more information stop by the music area after Masses or email kdejardin@olgcv.org.

An Enchanted Success!

The Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Community came together in fellowship at the Fairview Park Marriott on April 20, 2024 for a comeback of our Spring Gala, An Enchanted Evening in Eden. We are pleased to announce that the Gala was an enormous success.

We were joined by over 400 guests, supported by over 500 donors and sponsors, and raised over $340,000 for the OLGC Community.

The event has already fully funded:

- The upgraded and modernized technology for the school's multimedia center, including an extension of the Public Address System into areas of the school not previously covered.
- New Laptop Suites for each teacher at OLGC School.
- The installation of a new Bluetooth sound system, stage curtain, screen & projector equipment, and proper microphones in DeSales Hall.

In addition, Advancement and Events are meeting with vendors to focus on beautification of various aspects of our OLGC community experience. Stay tuned for more exciting updates this summer!

Thank You!

Thank you once again to our Gala Chairs,
Ashley Bogart & Layne Kroh,
and to our sponsors, volunteers, auction donors, and attendees for your commitment, generosity, and energy!

BETTER BRAIN HEALTH AS YOU AGE

Go beyond “eat well and exercise” and dive into the challenges of maintaining a healthy lifestyle. This free class for mature adults will be presented by Insight Memory Care on Monday, June 10 from 10-11 am at the Vienna Community Center. Register for Activity #143281 using your WebTrac account, or call 703.281.6360 to let them know you’ll be there, for planning purposes.

LONELINESS AND ISOLATION

These have different health impacts that most of us are probably not even aware of. Research shows that isolation poses a lot more physical health risks, but loneliness has a greater impact on mental health-related conditions, according to recent studies. Researchers learned that social isolation presented a stronger possibility of early death and physical health problems. On the other hand, loneliness showed a stronger association with mental health issues, such as depression.

There are so many resources available to Vienna-area elders to help mitigate both worrisome situations. There are plenty of opportunities to volunteer, either at church or at a helping organization such as the Shepherd’s Center of Northern Virginia (SCNOVA). SCNOVA provides free services to older adults, regardless of income, who may be homebound or don’t have transportation to medical appointments.

Technology helps us stay connected with each other; podcasts can open the world for those dealing with isolation and loneliness. If you’re someone who’s unable to commit as a volunteer and needs help, you can take advantage of staying connected through Friendly Callers of SCNOVA as well as visitors to your home. To learn more about how you can help this organization, or how it can help you, call 703.281.0538.

WORLD ELDER ABUSE AWARENESS DAY, JUNE 15

Last year, 3,525 reports of adult abuse, neglect or exploitation were received in Fairfax County. Adult Protective Services (APS) receives and investigates reports of such actions against adults who are 60 years or older, or 18 years and older and incapacitated. Its staff assesses for risk and works alongside the adult whenever possible to determine whether they need protective services. The adult is connected with helpful resources and may be provided case management services to address risk factors.

Report suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation to the APS hotline, 703.324.7450, TTY 711; your anonymity will be ensured. As much as we don’t like to think such things are taking place, often they happen without malice, such as when a spouse is the sole caregiver and is overwhelmed. To learn more, visit FairfaxCounty.gov/familyservices/older-adults/adult-protective-services.

Elder Wisdom

If you pride yourself on your memory of happenings in the days of yore, why can’t you remember how many times you’ve told these stories before?

REFLEXION SALESIANA

PARA EL DOMINGO

Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, 9 de junio de 2024

En su Introducción a la Vida Devota, Francisco de Sales no compara la felicidad con el egocentrismo, el ensimismamiento o la obsesión con nosotros mismos. Sin embargo, Francisco sí compara la felicidad con lo que él llama el autodomínio. El Santo Caballero escribe: "La mayor felicidad del hombre es ser dueño de su propia alma, y entre más perfecta sea nuestra paciencia más completamente poseeremos nuestras almas".

¡Qué felicidad es conocernos y aceptarnos a nosotros mismos por quienes somos a los ojos de Dios! ¡Qué dicha es sentirnos cómodos—sin ser autocomplacientes—en nuestra propia piel! ¡Qué dicha es, en esencia, sentirse en casa—estar en paz—con la persona que Dios nos hizo! En realidad, es lo mejor después del Paraíso.

Lo trágico es que, la capacidad de sentirnos como en casa con nosotros mismos fue la primera—y la más fundamental—víctima de la Caída. Tan pronto Adán y Eva comieron del fruto del árbol del conocimiento, su estado natural—su desnudez, su transparencia—se convirtió en reprobación. Se sentían incómodos—estaban avergonzados—de quienes eran. Literalmente, ya no se sentían cómodos en su propia piel. Manchados de repente por su autoaislamiento y el odio hacia sí mismos, perdieron el Paraíso... y la vida se convirtió en una carga.

Como bien sabemos, mucha de la miseria, el pecado y la tristeza que azotan a la familia humana hasta nuestros días procede ya sea de (1) nuestra incapacidad de ser quienes realmente somos o (2) nuestros intentos inútiles por ser quienes no somos.

En su Tratado Sobre el Amor de Dios, Francisco de Sales dijo: "Dios se ha manifestado ante nosotros de tantas maneras y a través de tantos medios que Él desea que todos seamos salvados y que nadie desconozca este hecho. Para este propósito, a través de la Creación Dios nos hizo "a su imagen y semejanza"; mientras que mediante la Encarnación Dios se hizo a sí mismo a nuestra imagen y semejanza".

La gracia redentora de la Encarnación nos permite experimentar nuevamente la felicidad que produce el poseer nuestras propias almas. El poder restaurador de la Encarnación hace que podamos experimentar otra vez la dicha de sentirnos básicamente de nuevo cómodos con quienes somos a los ojos de Dios. Heridos como estamos por el pecado, nuestra práctica de la devoción—nuestra cruzada para poseer nuestras almas—ya no es tan fácil como lo fuera originalmente en el Paraíso. Requiere una práctica perpetua; exige una enorme paciencia. Aun así, Dios no solo nos promete la dicha y la paz fruto de esta autoaceptación celestial; Él también nos muestra cómo lograrla en esta tierra y en la persona de su Hijo.

Jesús encarna el poder del autodomínio. Jesús exhibe la alegría de quien se acepta a sí mismo. Jesús irradia la paz de la autodeterminación. ¿Quién mejor que Jesús para mostrarnos lo que es sentirnos cómodos en nuestra propia piel? ¿Quién mejor que Jesús para demostrar lo que es invitar—y empoderar— a otros para que hagan lo mismo?
