

Name

Element of Literature and MORE!

- |   |                             |
|---|-----------------------------|
| 1. A discrepancy between what is expected to happen and what actually happens                   | Tone                        |
| 2. Narrator tells story from his own point of view, uses words like ' I '                       | Mood                        |
| 3. The quality of being true to life  | Atmosphere                  |
| 4. The feeling of a particular scene  | First Person POV            |
| 5. The point of the story after the climax, when the action starts to wind down                 | Second Person POV           |
| 6. Obvious exaggeration for effect  | Third Person Limited POV    |
| 7. The message about life or human nature that a story provides                                 | Third Person Omniscient POV |
| 8. When the reader knows something that a character does not                                    | Flat Character              |
| 9. An 'all-knowing' narrator  | Round Character             |
| 10. A scene that takes the reader back to a previous time period                                | Verbal Irony                |
| 11. A hint about something that will occur later  | Situational Irony           |
| 12. An extended metaphor or an entire story that is metaphorical                                | Dramatic Irony              |
| 13. The feeling of an entire work   | Static Character            |
| 14. The reason why the author wrote the story   | Dynamic Character           |
| 15. A discrepancy between what is said and what is meant  | Personification             |
| 16. A character who changes during a story  | Hyperbole                   |
| 17. A character who dies as a result of his own flaws and choices                               | Author's Purpose            |
| 18. Giving human characteristics to something that is not human                                 | Theme                       |
| 19. Conflict between a character and outside force  | Symbolism                   |
| 20. The dictionary meaning of a word  | Foreshadowing               |
| 21. A flawed character, usually rebellious  | Flashback                   |
| 22. Character opposed to the protagonist  | Allegory                    |
| 23. The introduction of a story's plot  | Tragic Character            |
| 24. A character with one or two traits seen   | Ode                         |
| 25. Narrator gives the thoughts and feelings of only one character (or one character at a time) | Byronic Hero                |
| 26. A link between two different senses   | Internal Conflict           |
| 27. Rhetorical contrast of opposites  | External Conflict           |
| 28. Addressing someone/something that is not present or not visible                             | Apostrophe                  |
| 29. Mournful poem about loss  | Verisimilitude              |
| 30. Tribute poem of love or respect   | Exposition                  |
|   | Rising Action               |
|   | Elegy                       |
|   | Climax                      |
|   | Antithesis                  |
|   | Falling Action              |
|   | Resolution                  |
|   | Denotation                  |
|   | Connotation                 |
|   | Protagonist                 |
|   | Antagonist                  |
|   | Simile                      |
|   | Metaphor                    |
|   | Synesthesia                 |