

Virtual Watery Cave Tour Grading Rubric

4.L4U1.11: Analyze and interpret environmental data to demonstrate that species either adapt and survive, or go extinct over time.

Rubric	Highly Proficient 4	Proficient 3	Partially Proficient 2	Minimally Proficient 1
Virtual Tour (Assessment Grade)	Student accurately demonstrates how the footprints, burned wood, and bones are evidence that the cave has changed over time. The student also makes connections between what is happening in the cave to other ideas explored in class.	Student accurately demonstrates how the footprints, burned wood, and bones are evidence that the cave has changed over time.	Student is still developing answers to how the footprints, burned wood, and bones are evidence that the cave has changed over time.	Student is still developing and/or is missing answers to how the footprints, burned wood, and bones are evidence that the cave has changed over time.
Group Participation (In-Progress Grade)		Student participates and plays an active role in group presentation. Student equally shares group responsibilities in project.	Student participates most of the time in the group presentation. Student shares some of the group responsibilities in project.	Student is not participating in group presentation. Student does not contribute to group responsibilities in project.