

JUST A LITTLE ABOUT MS. DEVOY

"Students don't care how much you know until they know how much you care"

-Anonymous

I began my teaching career at Vista Peak in January 2023. I am fortunate and blessed to have a long history of working with and caring for youth that have special needs. My passion and desire to teach started at a young age when a teacher I had made an enormous impact on my life. My desire to pursue a career in special education came from seeing a need. My children required special education services and the school they were in at the time struggled to provide.

I want to be apart of the solution and take my position as an educator very seriously. It is my desire to help students discover the greatness they have within themselves by providing a safe environment in which to grow. I am looking forward to this school year.
