

Second Grade Supply List

You will receive a specific supply list from your child's teacher in August. It's preferred that you wait for the teacher specific list before shopping as there will be additional items needed for the first day of school.