Choose Your Own Adventure!

I want to do something a little active that helps relieve stress	I like arts and crafts and want to learn how to make origami	I want to play cool mathgames.	I want to play (or learn how to play) chess
I like playing card games and I'd like to play online	I want to virtually explore national parks	I want to feel like I'm riding on a roller coaster	I want to watch a livestream of an animal
I want some more ideas for games that I can play at home	I want to do something related to outer space	I want to tour a world-class museum!	I want to try some brain teasers
I want to put together a puzzle	I want to try an online escape room	I want to try one moment meditation	I want to play some sudoku

To share with you what I did I want to...

Describe what I did in 5 complete sentences, Which I can post on the next slide

Create a one minute video response explaining what I did, and post that on the next slide.

Create a (SCHOOL APPROPRIATE) meme and upload that to the next slide.

Upload a picture of what I did somewhere on the next slide.

I have another idea for how I want to show what I did.

Here's what I did!
