The Future Me

The Idea

Submit a brief description of the person you expect to be in your later adult life. Be sure this is something you are comfortable sharing with the entire class. This brief summary is worth a total of 20 points. Remember: Although we want to get to know you, ideas of harm to self/others must be reported. Choose your topics wisely!

The Performance

Create a performance that presents your future self.
You may not be able to fit every detail of your future life into your performance, so be sure to pick the points that are most relevant and important to whom you will become. Think outside the box with this assignment! It can be more symbolic or metaphorical than literal, as long as the final performance clearly conveys how your future goals and impact on the world around you. Most of all, have fun!!!

Suggested Performance Mediums:

- An autobiographical monologue set to music
- A pantomime set to music
- A self-written song
- Song and dance combination
- Monologue interjected with music you perform
- A metaphor for your life set to music
- Other ideas approved by your teacher ☺

What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us. - Anonymous

"May the dreams of your past be the reality of your future.

Stop acting as if life is a rehearsal. Live this day as if it were your last. The past is over and gone. The future is not guaranteed. – Wayne Dyer
