So…occasionally I mess up…sometimes worse than others. And I definitely messed up our April to May schedule. Our assessment is on April 28th. With the 2 days off in April and the sudden onset of senior illness next week, I am worried about making all of our deadlines. Please look at the following:

This is our current schedule:

Improv shows in class this/next week

Assessment on April 28th

Leads in The Crucible will have some rehearsals next week (we'll decide Friday)

Mandatory final rehearsals May 12 and 13 (Thurs and Fri)

Music Theatre Revue May 16 (Monday)

Problem: Too much to do in too little time as improve performances will take 3 days

Proposed solution:

Postpone improv shows

Assessment on April 28th

(Leads in The Crucible will still have some rehearsals next week)

Improv show after school on April 29th or May 2nd

Optional final rehearsal May 12 (Thurs)

Mandatory final rehearsals May 13 (Fri)

Music Theatre Revue May 16 (Monday)

Same amount of required time after school- just different days
