Diners: America's Roadside Attractions

December 20, 2001 - Produced & written by Fred Lacey

Video	Audio
FADE UP EXT DINER (Maggie's diner)	MUSIC UP (Buddy Holly "Peggy Sue"
INT DINER CU PIES under glass counter - tilt up to MS Waitress delivering milkshake	MUSIC PLAYS along with NAT SOUND
CU CUSTOMER #1 in Booth eating dinner - looks up
TWO SHOT FRIENDS in booth chatting with Customer #1
MS DOLLY DOWN AISLE (camera passes customers in booths)	MUSIC & NAT SOUND UNDER NARRATOR VO: Maggie's diner, just off the New York turnpike has been serving up burgers and shakes since 1930
TRACKING SHOT MS WAITRESS with tray CAMERA FOLLOWS TRAY as she sets it down in front of a customer.	Maggie's Diner hasn't changed much in the 70 years it's been opened. Customers can still get friendly service, good food, and an atmosphere that takes us back to a time of innocence and youth.
MS WAITRESS scooping ice cream CU MILKSHAKE MACHINE	CHUCK HAINES VO: "I remember when I was 8 years old, having my first milkshake.
CU CHUCK HAINES FADE to BLACK	I was sitting right over at that counter. I took one taste and I thought I'd died and gone to heaven."
FADE UP MS SMILING WOMAN in passenger seat (B&W 1940s Ford commercial)	MUSIC UP (1940s "Two Lovebirds")
MS MAN DRIVING (from same commercial)	NARRATOR VO: Early in the 20th century, America began a love affair that still burns today.
TRACKING SHOT CAR with couple	America fell in love with the automobile.