

Ease the Stress of the Back to School Rush

With our spring rental reservation program, you can take the stress out of the back to school rush by reserving your child's instrument now. Simply pay the first month's rent today and the instrument will be delivered to your student's music teacher in the fall, along with any purchased books and accessories. Regular monthly payments will begin 1-month after school starts and will continue month to month from then on.

Back to School Budgeting

Make your first month payment now for one less back-to-school expense in the fall.

Stress Free Delivery

Avoid the lines and rushing all over town. Your child's instrument and any accessories will be delivered to their school ready for day one.

Instrument Selection Peace of Mind

Renting now while stock is high guarantees you get the instrument your child wants rather than settling for what's available.

Same Great Program

Instruments reserved in the spring still qualify for our 10-20-30 discount program and include our great maintenance and replacement guarantee.
