

MJH Summer Instrument Checkout Form

Instruments that need repaired will not be checked out over the summer. Students can be checked out instruments based on their need, summer camp attendance, and instrument availability. This contract is an agreement between the student and parents with Mr. Mills to ensure that district owned instruments are properly taken care of and return from summer vacation in working order. Any damages to the instrument caused intentionally or neglectfully must be paid for by the student/parent/guardian. Any damages due to normal wear and tear will be taken care of by the band director.
