

National Board Writing Webinars

Register Today!

Who: Any National Board candidate working toward National Board Certification in 2024-2025

What: These one-hour webinars are designed to support writing for the National Board portfolio. Candidates should expect to examine their own writing and work with peers on the selected topic. These sessions DO NOT replace cohorts nor conditional loan requirements.

When: Twice monthly, always Tuesdays, 4:30 PM-5:30 PM (choose Series A, B, or both!)

Series A (Fall-Winter) REGISTER HERE!

- Sept 10: Writing about Contextual Information
- Sept 24: Writing about Instructional Context
- Oct 15: Forms & Written Commentary
- Oct 29: Identifying and Writing about Goals
- Nov 5: Using Evidence in Written Commentary
- Nov 19: Integrating National Board Standards
- Dec 3: Writing Tips: Convincing, Clear, Consistent

Series B (Winter-Spring) REGISTER HERE!

- Jan 7: Writing about Contextual Information
- Jan 21: Writing about Instructional Context
- Feb 11: Forms & Written Commentary
- Feb 25: Identifying and Writing about Goals
- March 11: Using Evidence in Written Commentary
- March 18: Integrating National Board Standards
- April 8: Writing Tips: Convincing, Clear, Consistent

Where: Zoom – Register above and select the sessions you'd like to attend. You will need an account with <https://zoom.us/> and an electronic device to join. A Zoom link will follow in an email after completing the registration survey.

RSVP is required – registration will close day-of event. Contact OSPI National Board Program Specialist, Steven Mueller, at Steven.Mueller@k12.wa.us for any questions.

Washington Office of Superintendent of PUBLIC INSTRUCTION