

A Warm Drink on a Cold Day

By Sharon Heaps

It was a very cold day. It was supposed to be warm but there was a very cold wind. I had to wear my jacket the whole day at school. When school was over all I wanted was a warm drink. I was glad my mom was picking me up that day. When we got home I went into the kitchen for a snack. I had cookies and warm milk! The milk was SO good. I was happy.
