

ARTICLE 9: SAFE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

A. Student Conduct Procedures

1. Student Conduct Plan

Each school shall develop and distribute to all members a plan for how student conduct will be supported, which includes who is in charge when administrators are unavailable. Student conduct plans shall encompass staff guidance and provisions for restorative practices classroom student behavior supports for teachers bargaining unit members and other staff, and the procedure for student removal from class as outlined in Article 9-A.2. This plan will be implemented when students arrive. Plans will follow the template in Appendix G.

2. Extreme Student Disruption and Imminent Threat

When, in the judgment of the bargaining unit member, a student's behavior poses an imminent threat to the health, safety or welfare of other students or staff or rises to the level of extremely disruptive behavior requiring immediate action, based on the school's Student Conduct Plan by the member to prevent harm to students and/or staff, the bargaining unit member shall be authorized to send the student or students seek assistance to escort the student or students causing the disciplinary problem imminent threat or extremely disruptive behavior to the administrator's office or a designated place for the balance of the class period or, at the in elementary schools, until the next natural transition (i.e. e.g. recess, specials, lunch, or break). If assistance is not available the bargaining unit member shall use their judgment about next steps to maintain student and staff safety. When an administrator/designee determines the student will return to class, they will provide information to the bargaining unit member upon the student's reentry into the classroom, including but not limited to steps the administration has taken to address the incident and individuals contacted regarding the incident.

3. Room Clears

A bargaining unit member may remove other students from their classroom or other District space to ensure safety in response to extremely disruptive student behavior or imminent threat. Bargaining unit members will report room clears via the student conduct form, contained in Appendix [x]. The parties will negotiate this form.

Following a room clear the bargaining unit member shall receive support to prepare the learning space for students if needed. Supports will be mutually agreed upon by the administrator and the bargaining unit member or members.

The administrator will respond in writing about actions taken to address the situation, including if no action is taken, within two (2) student contact days of the bargaining unit member's submission. The reporting form will be accessible via the District's electronic infrastructure.

b. Follow-Up Support

Upon request by the bargaining unit member or administrator/designee, after a student has been removed or after a room clear, the administrator shall schedule a follow-up conversation. The impacted bargaining unit member shall not facilitate this conversation, unless they choose to do so. This conversation shall be between the bargaining unit member, administrator, relevant parties (e.g. case manager, social worker, student manager, etc.) the student(s), and the parent or guardian when possible, with the intention to support the student's successful return to class and restore productive relationships among those impacted.
