FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dwayne Foster Appointed as New Full-Time Athletic Commissioner of the Washington Catholic Athletic Conference

Washington, DC – June 12, 2024 – The Washington Catholic Athletic Conference (WCAC) is proud to announce the appointment of Dwayne Foster as the new full-time Athletic Commissioner. Foster, a seasoned leader with an extensive background in sports administration, brings his vast experience and visionary leadership to the WCAC, marking an exciting new chapter for the conference.

Dwayne Foster's Background and Vision:

Dwayne Foster, who embarked on his career in the WCAC over 20 years ago, brings a wealth of experience to his role as Athletic Commissioner for this nationally renowned high school conference. With an extensive background in high school and collegiate athletics, Foster combines his business acumen and student-focused approach to be a valuable asset to the WCAC. His career includes high-profile roles such as Chief Operating Officer, Orange County Schools in Hillsborough, NC, Director of Athletics, District of Columbia Public Schools, and Assistant Head Football Coach, Morgan State University. Foster has been instrumental in driving both athletic and academic success, earning widespread respect in the sports community for his dedication to student-athlete development and strategic program management.

Quote from Dwayne Foster: "I am elated and honored to join the WCAC as the Athletic Commissioner. This is a tremendous opportunity to work with a dedicated community of student-athletes, coaches, and administrators. Together, we will continue to elevate the academic and athletic experiences and resources for our exceptional schools and incredible student-athletes. I thank WCAC President, Bill Crittenberger, and the search committee members for extending this opportunity to me. I look forward to building on the solid foundation of the WCAC and leading the conference to new heights of success." said Dwayne Foster

Quote from WCAC President: We are thrilled to welcome Dwayne Foster to the WCAC family. His extensive experience, proven leadership, people skills, and unimpeachable integrity make him a superb choice to guide our conference forward. We are confident that under Dwayne's stewardship and shepherding, the WCAC will continue to thrive and excel in all areas," said Bill Crittenberger, President of the WCAC.

About the Washington Catholic Athletic Conference:

The Washington Catholic Athletic Conference is a prestigious high school athletic conference that includes 13 member institutions across the Washington, DC region. Known for its competitive sports programs and commitment to academic excellence, the WCAC provides student-athletes with opportunities to achieve success both on and off the field.

Contact Information:

Bill Crittenberger
President
Washington Catholic Athletic Conference