Know how the elections may impact the upcoming Legislative Session and issues that will be hot topics for school districts in New York State. Dave Little served as the Director of Governmental Relations for NYSSBA prior to becoming the Rural Schools Association of New York Executive Director.

In Dave's role, he travels around the state and works with legislators across New York State on a regular basis. Dave's experience in the capital provides him with much insight into politics in Albany.

The workshop is designed for New School Board Members, Veteran School Board Members, and Superintendents . If you are a School Board member who needs to know about the pulse of Albany now and after the elections - you cannot afford not to attend the Albany Update event.
