

PARENT INVOLVEMENTDistrict-Level Strategies for Title I Schools

To ensure that parents/guardians of students participating in Title I programs are provided with opportunities to be involved in their children's education, the Superintendent or designee shall:

1. Involve parents/guardians and family members of participating students in the joint development of the District's Title I, Local Educational Agency (LEA) plan and Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP) pursuant to 20 USC 6312 and the process of school review, support and improvement plans pursuant to 20 USC 6311 (20 USC 6318)

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. In accordance with Education Code 52063, establish a District-level parent advisory committee and, as applicable, an English learner parent advisory committee to review and comment on the District's Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP) in accordance with the review schedule established by the Governing Board
 - b. Invite input on the LEA plan and LCAP from other District committees and School Site Councils (SSCs)
 - c. Communicate with parents/guardians through the District newsletter, web site, or other methods regarding the LEA plan and LCAP and the opportunity to provide input
 - d. Provide copies of working drafts of the LEA plan and LCAP to parents/guardians in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents/guardians can understand
 - e. Ensure that school-level policies on parent involvement address the role of school site councils and other parents/guardians as appropriate in the development and review of school plans
 - f. Ensure that there is an opportunity at a public Board meeting for public comment on the Plans prior to the Board's approval of the Plans or revisions to the Plans
2. Provide coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist and build the capacity of Title I schools in planning and implementing effective parent/guardian and family engagement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance, which may include meaningful consultation with employers, business leaders, and philanthropic organizations or individuals with expertise in effectively engaging parents/guardians and family members in education (20 USC 6318)

PARENT INVOLVEMENT

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Assign person(s) in the District office to serve as a liaison to the schools regarding Title I parent/guardian and family engagement issues
- b. Identify funding and other resources, including community resources and services, that may be used to strengthen District and school parent/guardian and family engagement programs
- c. Provide training for the principal or designee of each participating school regarding Title I requirements for parent/guardian and family engagement, leadership strategies, and communication skills to assist in facilitating the planning and implementation of parent engagement activities
- d. With the assistance of parents/guardians, provide information and training to teachers and other staff regarding effective parent/guardian engagement practices and legal requirements
- e. Provide information to schools about the indicators and assessment tools that will be used to monitor student progress

3. To the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate Title I parent/guardian and family engagement strategies with parent/guardian and family engagement strategies of other relevant Federal, State and local programs and ensure consistency with Federal, State and local laws. (20 USC 6318)

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Identify overlapping or similar program requirements
- b. Involve District and school site representatives from other programs to assist in identifying specific population needs
- c. Schedule joint meetings with representatives from related programs and share data and information across programs
- d. Develop a cohesive, coordinated plan focused on student needs and shared goals
- e. To the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent engagement programs and activities with Head Start, First 5 Preschool, Parents as Teachers Program, public preschools, and other programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents/guardians in more fully participating in their children's education

PARENT INVOLVEMENT

- f. Ensure that information related to school and parent/guardian programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to the parents/guardians of participating students in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents/guardians can understand
- g. Provide other such reasonable support for parent engagement activities as parents/guardians may request

In addition, the Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parent involvement activities, including transportation and childcare costs, to enable parents/guardians to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions
 - b. Train parents/guardians to enhance the involvement of other parents/guardians
 - c. Arrange school meetings and conferences at a variety of times for parents/guardians and teachers or other educators who work directly with participating students
 - d. Make referrals to community agencies and organizations that offer literacy training, parent education programs, and/or other services that help to improve the conditions of parents/guardians and families
 - e. Provide a master calendar of district activities and District meetings
 - f. Provide information about opportunities for parent engagement through the District newsletter, web site, or other written or electronic means
 - g. Engage parent-teacher organizations to actively seek out and involve parents/guardians through regular communication updates and information sessions
 - h. To the extent practicable, provide translation services at school sites and at meetings involving parents/guardians as needed
 - i. Provide training and information to members of District and school site councils and advisory committees to help them fulfill their functions
 - j. Regularly evaluate the effectiveness of staff development activities related to parent involvement
4. Conduct, with meaningful involvement of parents/guardians and family members, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parent/guardian and family engagement policy in improving the academic quality of the schools served by Title I, and which include the following, including the identification of: (20 USC 6318)

PARENT INVOLVEMENT

- a. Ensure that the evaluation includes the identification of barriers to greater participation in parent engagement activities, with particular attention to parents/guardians who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background (20 USC 6318)
- b. Use the evaluation results to design strategies for more effective parent engagement and, if necessary, to recommend changes in the parent involvement policy (20 USC 6318)
- c. Assess the District's progress in meeting annual objectives for the parent involvement program, notify parents/guardians of this review and assessment through regular school communications mechanisms, and provide a copy to parents/guardians upon their request (Education Code 11503)
- d. Strategies to support successful school and family interactions

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Use a variety of methods, such as focus groups, surveys, and workshops, to evaluate the satisfaction of parents/guardians and staff with the quality and frequency of District communications
- b. Gather and monitor data regarding the number of parents/guardians and family members participating in District activities and the types of activities in which they are engaged
- c. Recommend to the Board measures to evaluate the impact of the District's parent/guardian and family engagement efforts on student achievement

5. Involve parents/guardians in the activities of schools served by Title I (20 USC 6318)

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Include information about school activities in District communications to parents/guardians
- b. To the extent practicable, assist schools with translation services or other accommodations needed to encourage participation of parents/guardians with special needs
- c. Establish processes to encourage parent/guardian input regarding their expectations and concerns for their children

PARENT INVOLVEMENT

The District's Board policy and administrative regulation containing parent involvement strategies shall be incorporated into the LEA plan and distributed to parents/guardians of students participating in Title I programs. (20 USC 6318)

School-Level Strategies and Policies for Title I Schools

At each school receiving Title I funds, a written policy on parent/guardian and family engagement shall be developed jointly with and agreed upon by parents/guardians and family members of participating students. Such policy shall describe the means by which the school will: (20 USC 6318)

1. Convene an annual meeting, at a convenient time, to which all parents/guardians of participating students shall be invited and encouraged to attend, in order to inform parents/guardians of their school's participation in Title I and to explain Title I requirements and the right of parents/guardians to be involved
2. Offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, for which related transportation, childcare, and/or home visits may be provided as such services relate to parent/guardian involvement
3. Involve parents/guardians in an organized, ongoing, and timely way in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school's parent/guardian and family engagement policy and, if applicable, the joint development of the plan for schoolwide programs pursuant to 20 USC 6314.

The school may use an existing process (i.e. School Site Council) for involving parents/guardians in the joint planning and design of the school's programs provided that the process includes adequate representation of parents/guardians of participating students.

4. Provide the parents/guardians of participating students all of the following:
 - a. Timely information about Title I Programs
 - b. A description and explanation of the school's curriculum, forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of State academic standards and local assessments
 - c. If requested by parents/guardians, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions related to their children's education, and, as soon as practicably possible, responses to the suggestions of parents/guardians

5. If the schoolwide program plan is not satisfactory to the parents/guardians of participating students, submit any parent/guardian comments when the school makes the plan available to the District

6. Jointly develop with the parents/guardians of participating students a school-parent compact that outlines how parents/guardians, the entire school staff, and students will share responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents/guardians will build a partnership to help students achieve State standards

This compact shall address:

- a. The school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables participating students to achieve the State's student academic achievement standards
- b. Ways in which parents/guardians will be responsible for supporting their children's learning, such as monitoring attendance, homework completion, and television viewing; volunteering in the classroom; and participating, as appropriate, in decisions related to their children's education and the positive use of extracurricular time
- c. The importance of communication between teachers and parents/guardians on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum:
 - (1) Parent-teacher conferences in elementary schools, at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed as it relates to the student's achievement
 - (2) Frequent reports to parents/guardians on their children's progress
 - (3) Reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's classroom, and observation of classroom activities
 - (4) Regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that the family members can understand

7. Promote the effective involvement of parents/guardians and support a partnership among the school, parents/guardians, and the community to improve student achievement through the following actions:

- a. Assist parents/guardians in understanding such topics as the state academic standards, state and local academic assessments, the requirements of Title I, and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve the achievement of their children

- b. Provide parents/guardians with materials and training, such as literacy training and using technology (including education about the harms of copyright piracy), as appropriate, to help them work with their children to improve their children's achievement
- c. With the assistance of parents/guardians, educate teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals and other school leaders, and other staff, in the value and utility of parent/guardian contributions and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents/guardians as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent/guardian programs, and build ties between parents/guardians and the schools
- d. To the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent/guardian involvement programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents/guardians in fully participating in their children's education
- e. Ensure that information related to school and parent/guardian programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to the parents/guardians of participating students in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents/guardians can understand
- f. Provide other such reasonable support for parent/guardian involvement activities as parents/guardians may request

In addition, the school plan may include strategies to:

- a. Involve parents/guardians in the development of training for teachers, principals, and other educators to improve the effectiveness of such training
- b. Provide necessary literacy training, using Title I funds if the district has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for such training
- c. Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parent/guardian engagement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents/guardians to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions
- d. Train parents/guardians to enhance the involvement of other parents/guardians
- e. Arrange school meetings at a variety of times or, when parents/guardians are unable to attend such conferences, conduct in-home conferences

between parents/guardians and teachers or other educators who work directly with participating students, in order to maximize parent/guardian involvement and participation

- f. Adopt and implement model approaches to improving parent/guardian involvement
 - g. Establish a parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parent/guardian involvement in Title I programs
 - h. Develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses in parent/guardian involvement activities
 - i. Make referrals to community agencies and organizations that offer literacy training, parent/guardian education programs, and/or other services that help to improve the conditions of parents/guardians and families
 - j. Provide a master calendar of district/school activities and meetings
 - k. Provide information about opportunities for parent/guardian and family engagement through the District newsletter, web site, or other written or electronic means
 - l. Engage parent-teacher organizations to actively seek out and involve parents/guardians through regular communication updates and information sessions
 - m. To the extent practicable, provide translation services at school sites and at meetings involving parents/guardians and family members as needed
 - n. Provide training and information to members of District and school site councils and advisory committees to help them fulfill their functions
 - o. Provide ongoing workshops to assist school site staff, parents/guardians and family members in planning and implementing improvement strategies, and seek their input in developing the workshops
 - p. Regularly evaluate the effectiveness of staff development activities related to parent/guardian and family engagement
 - q. Include expectations for parent/guardian outreach and involvement in staff job descriptions and evaluations
8. To the extent practicable, provide full opportunities for the informed participation of parents/guardians and family members with limited English proficiency, parents/guardians with disabilities, and parents/guardians of migrant children, including providing information and school reports required under 20 USC 6311(h) in a format and language such parents/guardians can understand.

If the school has a parent involvement policy that applies to all parents/guardians, it may amend that policy to meet the above requirements. (20 USC 6318).

Each school's parent/guardian and family engagement policy shall be made available to the local community and distributed to parents/guardians of participating students in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, provided in a language the parents/guardians can understand. (20 USC 6318)

Each school receiving Title I funds shall annually evaluate the effectiveness of its parent/guardian and family engagement policy. Such evaluation may be conducted during the process of reviewing the school's Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA) in accordance with Education Code 64001.

The principal or designee, jointly with parents/guardians of participating students, shall periodically update the school's policy to meet the changing needs of parents/guardians and the school. (20 USC 6318)

District and School Strategies for Non-Title I Schools

For each school that does not receive Federal Title I funds, the Superintendent or designee shall, at a minimum:

1. Engage parents/guardians and family members positively in their children's education by providing assistance and training on topics such as State academic standards and assessments to increase parent/guardian knowledge and skills to use at home to support their children's academic efforts at school, and their children's development as responsible members of society (Education Code 11502, 11504)

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Provide or make referrals to literacy training and/or parent education programs designed to improve the skills of parents/guardians and enhance their ability to support their children's education
 - b. Provide information, in parent handbooks and through other appropriate means, regarding academic expectations and resources to assist with the subject matter
 - c. Provide parents/guardians with information about students' class assignments and homework assignments
2. Inform parents/guardians that they can directly affect the success of their children's learning, by providing them with techniques and strategies that they may use to improve their children's academic success and to assist their children in learning at home (Education Code 11502, 11504)

PARENT INVOLVEMENT

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Provide parents/guardians with information regarding ways to create an effective study environment for their children at home and to encourage good study habits
 - b. Encourage parents/guardians to monitor their children's school attendance, homework completion, and television viewing
 - c. Encourage parents/guardians to volunteer in their child's classroom and to participate in school advisory committees
3. Build consistent and effective two-way communication between the home and school so that parents/guardians and family members may know when and how to assist their children in support of classroom learning activities (Education Code 11502, 11504)

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Ensure that teachers provide frequent reports to parents/guardians on their children's progress and hold parent-teacher conferences at least once per year with parents/guardians of elementary school students
 - b. Provide opportunities for parents/guardians to observe classroom activities and to volunteer in their child's classroom
 - c. Provide information about parent/guardian and family engagement opportunities through District, school, and/or class newsletters, the District's website and other written or electronic communications
 - d. To the extent practicable, provide notices and information to parents/guardians in a format and language they can understand
 - e. Develop mechanisms to encourage parent/guardian input on District and school issues
 - f. Identify barriers to parent/guardian and family participation in school activities, including parents/guardians and family members who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background
 - g. Encourage greater parent/guardian participation by adjusting meeting schedules to accommodate parent/guardian needs and, to the extent practicable, by providing translation or interpreter services, transportation, and/or childcare
4. Train teachers, administrators, specialized instructional support personnel, and other staff to communicate effectively with parents/guardians as equal partners

PARENT INVOLVEMENT

(Education Code 11502, 11504)

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Provide staff development to assist staff in strengthening two-way communications with parents/guardians, including parents/guardians who have limited English proficiency or limited literacy
 - b. Invite input from parents/guardians regarding the content of staff development activities pertaining to home-school communications
5. Integrate and coordinate parent/guardian and family engagement programs and activities into school plans for academic accountability, and into the District LCAP

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Include parent/guardian and family engagement strategies in Single Plan for School Achievements (SPSAs), and in school reform or school improvement initiatives
- b. Involve parents/guardians and family members in school planning processes
