English class is about more than developing reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills. We are human—and humans, by nature, are thinkers. In this class, your main job is to think. ENG 9H is themed around a central question: What is the most important thing teenagers must learn on their road to adulthood? Every book we read this year provides insight into the teenage experience. The culmination of this class, your final exam, will be an in-depth, individual analysis of this question. Throughout the year, our units will feature fiction, nonfiction, as well as poetry. Some readings will be assigned; some you will choose. Today and every day you will read, write, question, discuss, listen, and think deeply. NCAA Approved
