

DATA CONTROL & COMPLIANCE TECHNICIAN

DEFINITION

Under general direction, perform a wide variety of duties in support of the management and maintenance of the District's Student Information System (SIS) which includes data extracts, analyzing, troubleshooting and resolving anomalies relating to State/Federal Data Reporting; confer with District Office and school site administration regarding data control operations of the Central Enrollment Center; conduct training as appropriate in order for the District's Student Information System (SIS) to remain compliant with State/Federal requirements; provide support and assistance to site and District users regarding student information system operations and related data, applications, practices and procedures; and do other related work as required.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Work with all staff and functional areas that are responsible for CALPADS submissions; compile, verify, revise, and input data into the District's Student Information System, including data concerning student registration and preregistration; maintain and monitor data for a district-wide data system which is part of a state-wide data maintenance program; compile, understand, analyze, evaluate, validate, and submit reports of district information to the state CALPADS system; troubleshoot and resolve State/Federal Data Reporting anomalies; coordinate with the Human Resources department on the California State Assignment Accountability System (CALSAAS) and effects on CALPADS reporting; direct, review, and monitor the work performance of personnel assigned to the Central Enrollment Center; operate a computer to query information and receive data pertaining to a variety of computer output reports; provide support to sites that includes, but is not limited to, CALPADS, queries, reminders of existing features or new procedures, etc.; receive, review, and verify for accuracy and completeness computer output data and reports; recommend changes in report procedures, scheduling, and formatting; maintain a student record management system, locator data, and other similar information; assist with preparation and delivery of presentations; explain principles, standards, guidelines, requirements, practices, procedures and techniques related to student information and State/Federal Data Reporting requirements; may assist in the preparation of procedures and documentation guidelines to ensure that the data entry management and retrieval process is effectively and efficiently facilitated; may prepare and distribute complete official transcripts to institutions of higher learning, the military and other pertinent institutions; communicate with various District departments to coordinate activities, exchange information, and resolve issues or concerns; support the Enrollment Center, which includes maintaining a separate database involving backups, updating features, creating reports and new year preparation; provide support to the Health Services department including immunization requirements, oral health exam data compilation and monitoring non-compliance; perform a variety of general clerical functions, including typing, filing, correspondence, development, ordering, and maintaining supplies and materials, and other related functions.

EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS

KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES

Knowledge of:

Computer terminology and knowledge of various software programs;
Standard business office machines, computers, and equipment;
Standard office practices and clerical record management procedures;
Correct English usage, spelling, grammar, punctuation, and arithmetic concepts;
Reconciliation of computer generated reports;

Knowledge of (continued):

Record keeping and filing techniques;
Aeries and CSIS data collection and maintenance programs;
Interpersonal skills using tact, patience, and courtesy.

Ability to:

Adapt to actions, course, or approach to suit new situations;
Accurately analyze, prepare, and interpret statistical and computer generated data;
Accurately compile and prepare summaries and reports of operational activities;
Operate standard business machines and computers;
Perform responsible and complex clerical functions pertaining to computer input and output quality and control requirements;
Understand and carry out oral and written directions;
Establish and maintain an effective working relationship with those contacted in the course of work;
Relate effectively with racially and ethnically diverse staff, students, and community.

Skills:

Type at a rate of 40 words per minute from clear, legible copy; capable operation of word processing equipment and/or computers.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

Education:

Equivalent to the completion of the twelfth grade, supplemented by coursework or training in modern business office procedures, data processing, or closely related fields.

Experience:

Three years of responsible clerical experience, including two years involved with computer related functions.

LICENSES AND CERTIFICATES

If driving a vehicle is required in the course of work, operator must possess a valid and appropriate California driver's license; qualify for insurability with the District's insurance carrier. A valid first aid certificate will be required for some assignments.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS AND WORKING CONDITIONS

Strength:

Work involves lifting objects up to 50 pounds; physical dexterity in limbs and digits necessary to operate office equipment.

Pre-placement Physical: Class I