“If You Brought a Mouse to School...” Presented by Mark D. Mambretti

A key piece of your organization's success relies on providing a memorable experience. Discover how simple principles and leadership lessons that have been perfected at the world's leading theme park can apply to your organization. Themes include: Understanding Your Organization's Values and Vision, Overmanaging Your Brand, the Keys to Intentional Leadership, Effective Communication, Ensuring Success Through Values Alignment, Understanding Your Customer's Compass and the Importance of Legacy Building.

Why Attend?

- Understand your organizations current climate and culture.
- Define the values that underlay your (and your organization's) decision making.
- Learn the keys of intentional leadership and bring about (and sustain!) change.
- Receive practical tips on how to improve your organization's 'customer experience'.
- Because it has been too long since we have been together.
