HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

Probably most of you don't have your fathers around any longer. Mine died in 1978. Reflecting on him, I find his words much more meaningful now, his sacrifices more recognized and appreciated, and my gratitude and admiration for him much deeper since he left us. He was a man who had one foot in Europe, where he was born, and the other in America, his new home when he immigrated. How lucky I am that with that first foot he brought so much richness to my life through traditions and values I keep to this day. And that second foot taught me how to love my country and all it represented. I miss him, still. I think how much I'd love to sit at the kitchen table and share coffee and pastries with him, ask him questions, and learn more from his wisdom which far outweighed his meager education. For these reasons I'm so happy to be able to celebrate him today, to remember, to laugh and maybe cry a bit, and to whisper "thanks, Dad." I hope you can do that too.

BREAKFAST BUFFET

The American Legion Post 180's legendary breakfast buffet is Sunday, June 16, served from 8:00 am to noon at 330 Center St. N in Vienna. You'll find a lot of your favorite breakfast foods on the extensive menu. Adults pay $12 and children under 12 are only $5.

FOR YOU AND YOUR GRANDKIDS

The "Kids on the Green" summer program continues June 18 with Groovy Nate (kids' music) and June 25 with Mark H. Rooney (Taiko: Japanese Drumming.) "Stories and Sprinklers" is another children's summer program on Wednesdays at 1:00 pm beginning June 26 through July 31. You'll enjoy listening to stories near the patio located behind the Freeman Store. Afterwards, the kids can cool off while running through the sprinklers on the Town Green lawn. If you're having visiting grandchildren or are looking after those living locally, try to take advantage of these free programs.

ESTATE PLANNING

This is a free lecture for mature adults offered by Vienna Parks & Recreation on June 21, 10-11am at the Community Center. The presentation is designed to highlight the main parts of an estate plan and the critical importance of each document. The presenter will be Alison Mathey Lambert, Attorney. Register for Activity #141566-A1 using your WebTrac account, or call the Center, 703.255.6360 to tell them you'll be there.

NEED ADDITIONAL COOLING?

The Senior Cool Care Program is a public-private partnership sponsored by Dominion Energy and administered through the Fairfax County Area Agency on Aging for eligible low-income older adults (60+). It helps with additional cooling during the summer months and runs through October 31. If you're interested, call 703.324.7948.

Elder Wisdom

Remember, being over the hill is still better than being under it.

Staff Transitions

Welcome Ms. Carmen Clem, our new Coordinator of Youth Ministry. Ms. Clem came to us from a two-year missionary program with Damascus, a Catholic retreat-based ministry in central Ohio. She is a full member in Women Youth Apostles. Her office will be at St. Joseph's Center. Please stop by and say hello!

We bid farewell to Michael Troup, IT Support Technician. Michael has moved to Michigan to get married. We wish Michael and his fiancé all the best in their new life together.

Parishioner in Need of Kidney Transplant

One of our parishioners, Reed Eldridge, is seeking a kidney donor. Please see the advertisement section of the bulletin for more information. Thank you!

REFLEXION SALESIANA

*para el Décimo primer domingo
del tiempo ordinario*

Las lecturas de hoy nos ayudan a mantener las cosas en perspectiva. Que no quepa la menor duda: todos hemos sido llamados a seguir los pasos de Jesucristo. Pese a que todos tenemos una responsabilidad muy importante – promover el reino de Dios– la manera más eficaz de responder a este llamado es prestar atención a los detalles; es decir, hacer todas las cosas, incluso las que parecieran menos trascendentales, con un gran amor.

En su Introducción a la Vida Devota, Francisco de Sales nos exhorta a hacer lo siguiente:

“Consagren sus manos a las labores arduas: aprendan a orar y a meditar, reciban los sacramentos, guíen a otras almas para que amen a Dios, inculquen las buenas inspiraciones en los corazones de los demás; en resumen, realicen grandes obras conforme a su vocación. Sin embargo, jamás se olviden de... esas pequeñas y humildes virtudes que crecen como flores al pie de la cruz: ayudar a los pobres, visitar a los enfermos, cuidar de sus familias, con todas las responsabilidades que éstas implican y con la diligencia que les urge a no permanecer de brazos cruzados”.

“Rara vez se nos presentan oportunidades importantes para servir a Dios. Sin embargo, frecuentemente se presentan oportunidades que a simple vista parecen menos relevantes... ustedes se beneficiarán más a los ojos de Dios si aprovechan esas pequeñas oportunidades porque Dios desea que lo hagan”. (III, 35, pp. 214 - 215)

Dios ha puesto a nuestra disposición un sinnúmero de métodos para que logremos nuestra salvación. Gracias a una maravillosa infusión de la gracia de Dios en nuestras mentes, corazones, actitudes y acciones, el Espíritu Santo hace que nuestras obras se conviertan en obras de Dios. Nuestras buenas labores – como plantar pequeñas semillas de mostaza aquí o esparcir pequeñas semillas allá– cuentan con el vigor y la virtud suficiente para hacer un gran bien porque proceden del Espíritu de Jesús.

A la final, las pequeñas cosas que hacemos son realmente significativas a los ojos de Dios. De hecho, ¡lo son todo!
