1. How is your child feeling about the start of school and what should we know to best support the transition at the start of the year?
2. What are your child's interests, strengths, and/or skills?
3. How independent is your child in terms of self-care skills?
4. What types of communication will be most helpful throughout the school year? Are there other supportive adults I should include in my communication with you?
5. Is there anything else you'd like us to know that will help us support your child?
6. What languages are spoken in your household? Would translated documents be supportive for your family? Will you request a translator for meetings with school personnel?
7. Are there other important people in your student's life you would like us to know about?
