Recessional

To My Amazing Young Professionals (My Big Babies),

Thank you for allowing me to serve as your Principal! It has truly been an honor and privilege to do so. You all are graduating! You all are graduating from Manor Senior High School as prolific readers and writers, critical thinkers, collaborative teammates, responsible decision-makers, and entrepreneurs! You all have taught me so much over these past two years, including how to grow the first gray hair in my head! However, I wouldn't trade our time together, for anything in this world. I have to admit, I am going to miss being some of you all's personal escort to your classes, reminding others to stop touring the building and get to class, and my favorite frequent friendly reminder during transitions, that "The more you go to class...the closer you get to graduation" and look at you all right now...here...at graduation! You made it!!! We have laughed, cried, joked, danced, celebrated, and made many great memories together. Being able to share today with you all means the world to me. Being able to witness this moment has made all of my late nights and early mornings worth it! The piece of paper that you are about to receive today will change your life, for the rest of your life. Manor Senior High School Class of 2024...YOU DID IT!

I have truly enjoyed watching each of you mature into young adults. Most importantly, I have enjoyed witnessing you all gain the courage to advocate for yourselves in very creative and innovative ways. As you all begin this new journey of your lives, continue to be intentional and deliberate about the company you keep. Surround yourself only with individuals who will encourage you and push you to make the best possible choices, and to be your BEST selves at all times! Ensure that each and every decision you make is conducive to the successful future that you are currently walking into!

Continue to shine like the bright stars you are and never dim your light for anyone!!! No matter how hard things get, keep going! Remember that perseverance, grit, and determination are powerful tools for elevation that will help you rise and get through life's ups and downs. Understand that hard work pays off and it always will!

Remember to prioritize your mental health, protect your peace, value yourself, and celebrate not only big wins... but small wins as well. Understand that people will not always have your best interest at heart...and that's okay but never allow them, their opinions, or unfavorable decisions to disturb your peace nor dictate how far you can and will go in life to fulfill your destiny and your purpose! In all that you do, "Be Intentional." In every decision that you make, "Be Deliberate." No matter how hard life gets..."Persevere!" "Don't Quit!" "Be Accountable." "Communicate Effectively and Efficiently." Continue to "ADVOCATE" for yourselves and for others and most importantly, "Trust the Process."

Stay focused, stay positive, and in the words of the Late Great Nipsey Hussle, remember... "The best thing you can do for a person is to inspire them. That's the best currency you can offer: inspiration. So, when a person can rely on you for that, that empowers them in every realm of their life. Being inspired. It empowers them in their relationships, in their business, in their art, in their creativity. It empowers them because without inspiration, you're dry." Congratulations Class of 2024! I wish you all the very best in your future full of successes!

Honors Received by Graduates

In today's ceremony, you will notice several graduates adorned with colorful cords, each signifying a unique accomplishment or affiliation. These cords are a visual acknowledgment of the exceptional dedication, academic excellence, and leadership our students have demonstrated throughout their academic journey. Each color represents a different area of achievement or membership in an honor society, academic club, or service organization.

Cords may include:

AVID | Fine Arts | Arts and Humanities (Dance) | Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA)

STUCO/ Student Government Association | Top 10% | CTE

Enlisted in the United States Military
