HIGH SCHOOL PROFILE

For 63 years, students from around the globe have engaged in a rigorous, college-preparatory education at the American School of Brasilia (EAB) that embodies the school's Mission. Much more than solely an academic institution, the high school embodies the EAB Vision by providing a dynamic learning environment that offers myriad opportunities for students to become artists, leaders, public servants, athletes, and academics.

ABOUT EAB

- Established in 1961;
- Independent, non-profit day school;
- All graduates earn a U.S. High School Diploma;
- Brazilian graduates also earn the Brazilian High School Diploma;
- Twenty-one International Baccalaureate (IB) classes are offered;
- All students must complete at least four IB classes;
- 72% of the class of 2023 were full IB diploma candidates.
