Title
Georgia Career and Technical Instruction (CTI) Competition

Requested Action
School Board Recognition of Creekview High School Rising Senior Charlie Holderness -- Named 2024 Georgia Career and Technical Instruction (CTI) Competition First Place Winner

Summary Explanation and Background
A Cherokee County School District student earned statewide honors at Georgia's Career and Technical Instruction Competition!

The competition offers students the opportunity to demonstrate skills from their chosen Career Pathway, with presentations judged by skilled professionals from that career field.

Creekview High School rising senior Charlie Holderness earned first place in the state for his "Hypeman Holderness" advertising campaign competition entry. His CTI teacher is Ed Walker, and his Career Pathway: Marketing and Management teacher is Ashley Jones.
