Georgia Farm Bureau Annual Art Competition
Requested Action
School Board Recognition of River Ridge High School Recent Graduate Ashley McMath -- Named First Place Winner in the 2024 Georgia Farm Bureau Annual Art Competition
Summary Explanation and Background
River Ridge High School Class of 2024 graduate Ashley McMath won first place in the Georgia Farm Bureau's annual art contest, and her artwork will be featured in the organization's annual calendar. Ashley won first place at the school level, then advanced to win the Cherokee County Farm Bureau's contest to earn the opportunity to compete statewide. She is the first CCSD student to earn this honor in 23 years. A student in teacher MaryJo Mulvey's art classes, Ashley will be attending the University of North Georgia in the fall to study graphic design. Ashley previously was honored as the 11th District's overall winner in the national Congressional Art Competition. Her artwork has been on display for the past year at the U.S. Capitol. As part of the honor, she received tickets to Washington, D.C. to see her artwork displayed and to meet with Congressman Barry Loudermilk, who represents the 11th District.
