

Press Release: The CCS Board of Education Fills Division 1 Representative Board Vacancy and Welcomes New Board Member, Mrs. Tamara Kuhel

Campbell County Schools is pleased to welcome Mrs. Tamara Kuhel to the CCS Board of Education, filling the recent vacancy for Division 1 Representative. Mrs. Kuhel will bring her extensive experience as a registered veterinary technician and career technical instructor to her new role, where she is committed to supporting and enhancing educational opportunities across the district.

Mrs. Kuhel, a resident of Wilder, Kentucky, has been an active participant in the educational community, particularly at Cline Elementary, Campbell County Middle School, and Campbell County High School, where her children have been enrolled. Her involvement has ranged from PTO participation to various volunteer roles, displaying her dedication to student success and community engagement.

Professionally, Mrs. Kuhel has been managing unit operations at the University of Cincinnati's Animal Care and Use Program (Laboratory Animal Medical Services and the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee), focusing on compliance oversight, training, efficiency, and program development. Her background also includes a teaching career at Diamond Oaks Career Campus in Cincinnati, Ohio, where she developed curriculum standards and facilitated numerous student successes in state competitions and assessments. Her collaborative efforts with local shelters and businesses illustrate her commitment to community-oriented educational approaches.

Campbell County Schools is enthusiastic about the professional expertise and passionate community involvement that aligns with the district's values and goals. Mrs. Kuhel's perspective as a parent and educator will be valuable in guiding strategic initiatives and ensuring our students continue to receive the best educational opportunities.

Mrs. Kuhel shared her enthusiasm for her new position, stating, "I am deeply honored by the opportunity to give back to Campbell County Schools, which has given so much to my family. I am delighted to step into this role and serve our community."

Mrs. Kuhel officially took her oath and seat on the CCS Board of Education, Monday, June 17, 2024.
