PRESS RELEASE

School Board Appoints Orange County High School Assistant Principal

On Monday, June 17, 2024, the Orange County School Board approved the appointment of Mr. Brandon Hatcher-Fagan as Assistant Principal of Orange County High School (OCHS) beginning July 1, 2024.

Mr. Hatcher-Fagan began his career in Birmingham, Alabama, where he served as a middle and high school English teacher, elementary and middle school Special Education teacher, and a school bus driver. Most recently, he has served in Spotsylvania County Public Schools as a Reading Specialist and the Division Middle School English Liaison.

Mr. Hatcher-Fagan graduated from the University of Alabama at Birmingham with a Bachelor's Degree in Secondary English/Language Arts Education and continued on to earn a Master's Degree in Special Education. He is currently working on his PhD in Educational Leadership at Old Dominion University.

Mr. Hatcher-Fagan enjoys spending time at the lake with family and friends, traveling, and spoiling his two dogs, Diesel and Sophie.

"I am very excited to embark on this new journey and serve the students and families as Assistant Principal at OCHS," Mr. Hatcher-Fagan stated. "I look forward to meeting the students and community members of Orange County in the coming weeks. Go Hornets!"
