SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Jordan reported on the following:

- Our student of the month, Lyla Walsh, is being honored for her meritorious contributions to both the school and community with her inspirational performances of TAPS.
- We congratulate all of our MAS alumni graduating from high school and college this year.
- We honor the BOE and Governors' Teachers of the Year
- All non-tenured and tenured observations have been completed. Annual summary review year-end meetings are completed.
- Kindergarten registration information has been advertised and posted.
- The Kindergarten and 3rd grade celebrations took place to packed gymnasiums.
- The Grade 8 special awards and general awards took place at MAS Monday. Many thanks to all who have a hand in these programs. Many thanks to the many alumni and local organizations for their generous contributions of scholarships and time during the Grade 8 special awards ceremony.
- The Becton graduation takes place Friday. It marks the first Maywood graduating class ever at Becton. Fittingly, the Valedictorian is MAS alum, Tim Pineda.
- This year has flown by yet again. The District thanks the community for its support and wishes everyone an enjoyable summer.
