7	The front office staff and any staff I have encountered are racist. I have never seen them talk to an African American parent the way they talk to me EVERY TIME I'm there. I was denied access to see my child(ren) several times. I've been told I couldn't have lunch with my children. Had to fight that in order to do so. When trying to get communication from the school as far as sports, there's none. There's isn't any info to come home about them. Only what my kids tell me. When I attempted to communicate with Coach Barnes about an issue my child told me with transportation, the response in email I got was "we're working on it." No further details. When I got a call about it, I was told my child didn't need to go "crying to mom" about these things. NO ONE else told me about it, who else was going to communicate the issue.??? The school nurse is a micromanaging joke of a nurse. Made a decision to send my child home without talking to me about it and then said I couldn't talk to her because she was already getting her stuff to leave. When I wrote a note for her to return and asked that the nurse discuss these things with me prior to making decisions, she called me with the NASTIEST attitude telling me she wasn't "going to go back and forth about this with me." Obviously she was because she called me to tell me how she disliked my note I sent in and continued to cut me off several times during the conversation. If I had ANY other options for a different school, I would send my children ANY there else. Most communication (if any) about school events, come to me within days of their occurrence, which makes it difficult to plan attending for my children.	2/5/2024 7:34 AM

12	There needs to be firmer policy on behavior and discipline. The "bad" students are given too much leeway and not enough consequences for "bad" behavior. The teachers are not their "friend" and it needs to be clearer the students need to show respect for the teachers in order to keep an environment safe and conducive for learning.	1/24/2024 7:19 AM
