Yearbook Mrs. Anderson

2022

Class Overview

Yearbook students are historians, journalists, and artists creating a photojournalistic book that will be cherished for years to come. What you do will effect your class, the school, and even the community. It can also affect future yearbook students and their families.

OUTSIDE WORK

When you signed up for yearbook you signed up for extracurricular activities. Much of the work comes outside of school hours. You must be present when you say you will be there.

Skills & Components

- Write captions
- Photography/editing
- interview skills
- create and follow a theme
- edit/proofread
- sales techniques
- cooperative learning

Behavior Policy

This classroom is a community where each member should feel safe and included. Thus, any disruption to the community and learning environment will not be tolerated. I have two rules. They cover everything: Be NICE. Work HARD.

- 1st Offense - Verbal Redirect
- 2nd Offense - Parent Contact
- 3rd Offense - Administrative Write up

*Depending on the nature of the offense, parents and administrators may be involved

Required Materials

- Good work ethic
- Positive attitude

Academic Honesty

As a Yearbook student, you will be an example of the 7 pillars of our school. You will be handling photos, information, and money. You will be expected to conduct yourself with integrity at all times. You will not share any photos from the yearbook class with anyone without express permission. If you do it is an automatic dismissal from the class.
