

Dear Bernie,

My name is Dylan Faraci and I am the head women's rugby coach at New England College.

I am writing to you today to see if you have any student-athletes who are looking to play rugby at the next level. New England College is a small institution in Henniker, New Hampshire with much to offer. The small class sizes, athletic success seen throughout, and overall sense of community creates a perfect balance for student-athletes to succeed.

Both of our rugby programs have seen success on and off the field. Our women's program currently competes in the NCAA sponsored NIRA Division III competition. Our programs have great benefits that many other collegiate programs do not, such as athletic trainers and coverage within our athletic department's in news and other media.

Please feel free to share this video with your athletes: Recruitment Video

If there are any athletes who are interested, please have them fill out this form: Interested Players Form

Regards,
