

Bring your talents to the insurance industry!

Claims Handling

Sales & Marketing

Customer Service

Embark on a new career in insurance. Begin in the classroom, where you will learn about insurance, earn 2 insurance licenses and an Insurance Help Desk Professional® designation. As a newly licensed agent, you will have sufficient knowledge to find your first job as entry-level insurance professional. We partner with many companies that will provide additional training to entry-level professionals.

Program Details

- Up to 8 weeks of Paid Classroom Training (receive a $400.00 weekly stipend)
- Up to 44 weeks of Paid On-the-Job Training (receive $17.00 - $19.00 per hour)
- Monday – Friday/8:30 am – 2:30 pm (virtually or in person)
- Earn 2 insurance licenses and an Insurance Help Desk Professional® designation
- Take your newly acquired skills on- the- job or start your own business

Skills and Competencies Taught

- Soft Skills Development
- Sales & Marketing Techniques
- Entrepreneurship in Insurance
- Customer Service
- Claims Handling Techniques
- Insurance Quotation

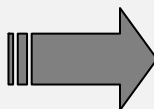

As a newly licensed agent, you will have sufficient knowledge to find your first job as entry-level insurance professional or take the bold step to start your own business. We partner with many companies that will provide additional training to entry-level professionals.

Why the Insurance Industry?

Bringing your talents to the insurance industry is a wise choice for several compelling reasons. If you're in search of a dynamic career with substantial growth potential, flexibility, and the chance to make a tangible impact on people's lives, then this industry is an excellent fit for you. The insurance sector boasts a secure and promising job market, ensuring a stable future for job seekers. Moreover, the insurance industry prioritizes continuous training and professional development, offering a reliable pathway for individuals to establish enduring and secure careers. In this field, your talents will not only be valued but will also contribute to enhancing the overall well-being and peace of mind of countless individuals and communities.

To Apply:

- You must be at least 17 years of age
- Be able to read and comprehend English at a basic level
- A high school diploma is preferred but is not required.

For More Information:

Go to www.thenaipusa.org and click on the "I'm Interested" link or scan the QR Code below.

National Association of Insurance Professionals, Inc.
www.thenaipusa.org

